

About Us

The Barony of Atenveldt is the first and oldest Barony in the Society for Creative Anachronism, bringing the Middle Ages to life in Central Phoenix. We are a diverse group of medieval history enthusiasts, artisans, and warriors dedicated to researching and recreating the arts, skills, and culture of pre-17th century civilizations through hands-on activities.

From grand tournaments and feasts to casual gatherings and craft nights, our Barony offers something for everyone. Whether you dream of wielding a sword, crafting historical garments, or performing bardic tales, you'll find a welcoming community ready to share in the adventure. Our events create lasting friendships, offer opportunities for personal growth, and let you step into a world of chivalry, honor, and creativity.

FAQs
