From the Seneschal

Important Information Concerning Baronial Fighter Practice

The terms of the usage for Encanto Park have been clarified and the terms of the contract between the City and the Barony of Atenveldt proposed. Once the financial committee approves the proposal and all the paperwork is completed and submitted to the City with full payment the practice will be allowed to continue. The Barony does not foresee any reasons the January 9th practice would not be held.

In short:

The SCA will continue to use the park on Wednesday nights through the end of February. A new contract will be needed quarterly; the next quarter being March through May. Dates and times of the practice will be re-negotiated each quarter based on the number of youth programs sponsored by the City of Phoenix at Encanto Park during those months.

With the exception of the first week of the month the SCA has sole usage of the park.

The fighter practice will be from 7 PM until 10 PM. This represents a 30 minute extension to the length of the practice.

Factoring in insurance costs the weekly cost of the fighter practice will be nominally $45.

I will be available to explain the current City of Phoenix policies and its impact to the SCA for use of its parks facilities at 12th Night and the January 9th fighter practice for anyone that wishes to know more details.

From the Chirurgeon

Greetings from the Twin Moons Deputy Baronial Chirurgeon!

Let it be known that I will be hosting a First Aid and CPR class on Saturday, January 26 from 9am to 6pm at a location in the East Valley to be determined. Certification is through the American Heart Association and includes AED (Automated External Defibrillator) certification.

This class is open to anyone aged 12 and above. We need a minimum of 6 people for the class, the maximum will be 10. Cost for this class is $30, which is an amazing deal. This is just under half what the class normally costs.

Payment must be made in advance**

If you will be unable to attend for the full day, there is now another option! You can now take the class and test online at www.onlinetrainingplace.com for $25. Upon completion, you can print the certificate of completion, bring it to the class on the 26th, and take the practical exam. The cost for just taking the practical will be $15. PLEASE LET ME KNOW IF YOU PLAN TO TAKE THE CLASS THIS WAY.

We will do a pot-luck lunch (or order pizza), which will be arranged closer to the class date. If you are interested in attending this class, please email me or call me at 480-786-4624 or 480-282-3599 (no calls after 9pm please). Please let me know no later than Friday, January 11.

In service,

Lady Caissene ingen Scandlain, Deputy Baronial Chirurgeon
Barony of Twin Moons
(mka Kelly Valencia)

From the Kingdom Sheriff

It's time to really start thinking about our meeting for all those who plan to work security at the Estrella War. In years past we've held just one big meeting and have expected everyone to come to it. Well the problem with that is we don't always get everyone there at the same time. So this year I'm trying something new.

I have spoken to all the event stewards for the upcoming war practices in January and they have all graciously allowed me to hold a small meeting during each of the practices. I will be talking about the same stuff during each meeting so this way most of the kingdom will have at least one chance get a security meeting.

So the pre-war security meetings will be held at some point (probably after court or in the afternoon) during each of the following War Practices. If you plan to work security during war, or if you have already volunteered and are on the schedule to work for us then please try to attend one of these meetings:

Kingdom War Practice - Sunday, January 6th - Barony of Sun Dragon (Glendale, AZ)

Kingdom War Practice - Sunday, January 13th - Shire of Granholme (Casa Grande, AZ)

Kingdom War Practice - Sunday, January 20th - Barony of Tir Ysgithr (Tucson, AZ)

If you are planning to drive a cart for a roving patrol at war please remember to bring your Drivers License and proof of current insurance to one of these meetings. Also, if you have already volunteered to work and are on the Monday Arrival list (you know who you are) then please make sure you are pre-registered (showing Tuesday Arrival on your form) by no later than tomorrow, January 31st, 2007 or you will not be allowed on site as planned on Monday.

If you have any questions please feel free to call me at (602) 677-1575 or email me at karl@langskipp.com

Thanks again in advance from your service...

In service to the Dream,
Lord Karl Teransson av Drakkar
Atenveldt Kingdom Sheriff

War Stories

☞ The Estrella War is the Largest SCA Event.

It's the 2nd largest event. Pennsic War, held in the summer in Pennsylvania is the largest.

☞ Estrella War is the Oldest SCA War.

Once again, Estrella comes in second to Pennsic.

☞ Estrella War is 24 years old.

Though the event was associated with Estrella Park 24 years ago this February, the event is years older. The idea of a "Western" War began with a multi-Kingdom face off at Estrella Park in 1977, which was called the Estrella Invitational. The February "Presidents Day" War in its present sort of form probably began in 1978 at Burro Creek, AZ as an event sponsored by the Barony of Atenveldt. The event was held at Burro Creek for a few years, and subsequently at Bouse, AZ, finally landing at Estrella Park in 1984. Sometime after this, the event became an event sponsored by the Kingdom of Atenveldt. The War moved to Schnepf Farms for 3 years, and then back to Estrella Park for Estrella 18. It's current location is Canyon Moon Ranch, Florence, AZ.

☞ Marshallate rules for a tournament don't apply "at a War."

Answered by Duke Arthur of Lockhaven:

"Some people believe you can (just for an example) grab a spear away from a guy "at a war" but you can't do it "at a tournament." (Or "tackle the guy" or many other things.) True, some rules apply in a war that don't in a tournament (siege engines would be an easy example) but the same rules of the lists (Behave in a chivalrous manner etc.) apply in all SCA combat wherever it may be. Many people think a "war" is a free-for-all where anything goes!" (Note: Send them to Duke Arthur or Viscount Ivan du Grae.)

☞ I can just show up at Estrella and everybody will feed me and give me sleeping space.

Sorry, you need to have arranged for land and have your own tents, sleeping bags, food, medicines, etc. Be responsible.

☞ I can just send my children to Estrella with a friend.

Only if you have provided that friend with notarized temporary guardianship papers and medical power of attorney.

☞ You have to be a Baron or Royal Peer – or – You have to be a Peer to be an Estrella War Steward ("autocrat").

I was a Steward of Estrella XXI, and was not a peer when appointed. One of my Co-Stewards was neither a baron nor a peer when appointed. The Stewards for Estrella War XXII are both peers but neither is a baron or royal peer.

This is a huge job that requires leadership abilities, knowledge and experience both in Atenveldt and the SCA in general, and in running the event. The people who meet these requirements are likely to hold peerages, baronies, etc., but it isn't any kind of requirement.

☞ You automatically get a Pelican if you "autocrat" Estrella War.

Not at all true. In fact, there has been some hostility towards the War and its Staff among a vocal minority of Aten Pelicans.

☞ Estrella War Autocrats get a big salary.

HYSTERICAL LAUGHTER! The only perk the War Staff gets is an optional waiver of the site fee of which many don't even take advantage. Other than that, a nice "thank you" and maybe the Star of the Desert is as far as "payment" goes.

☞ You can't be part of the Estrella War Staff unless you are a member of the "Old Boys Club" and/or friend of the Crown

I was Co-"Autocrat" of Estrella War XXI (2004) having been none of the above (Well-- I confess to becoming fond to most of the Kings and Queens with whom I worked on 3 Estrella Wars, but we aren't close friends.) Recent personal experience gives me a unique position from which to address this myth. With no previous experience on the Estrella War Staff, I took on the position of Executive Assistant for Estrella War XIX (2001). I was no part of any "old boys club", but did have a track record proving my ability to perform that particular job. I can attest that throughout that time, anyone willing to volunteer to help with the event was always welcomed with open arms.

The Estrella War is a very large event, attracting up to 7,000 or more people from all over the world. It involves huge amounts of money, interactions with government agencies, municipalities, and the news media. There are complicated real world, legal, regulatory and public relations issues, and SCA political and public relations issues as well. The Managers (Stewards/"Autocrats") and department heads of this event have immense responsibilities requiring leadership and organizational talents along with experience and understanding of the event itself. Further, the War Officers must have the freedom and willingness to take on what can become almost a full-time job. The responsibilities of Estrella War Managers and Department heads are too great to be trusted to just anybody.

Why is this particular myth so common? Estrella War Autocrats and Department Managers are sometimes perceived as having high status, and these positions are also mistakenly assumed by many to be a big boost towards a peerage. Some of those who spread this myth the most enthusiastically have unsuccessfully applied for Steward or Department Head positions in the past.

☞ The Barony of Sundragon controls the Estrella War, and its Staff.

Estrella Mountain Park was the site for most Estrella Wars and it is located within the Barony of Sundragon. Because of both proximity and a Baronial culture emphasizing service, Sundragoners have historically made up a large proportion of the War Staff. Sundragon does not control the event, nor does the Barony have any wish to restrict anyone from serving on its staff.

☞ You have to live in Metro Phoenix to be an Estrella War Officer.

It depends on the position, and many of the Department Heads need to at least be Arizona residents because proximity is important to getting the job done. However, a number of Estrella Officer positions have been filled with distinction by gentles from other branches and outside the kingdom.

☞ The War Staff doesn't pay any attention to complaints or suggestions.

What this usually really means is that the War Staff didn't act as the complainant wished upon a particular suggestion or complaint. The War Stewards actively solicit commentary, every single one is read and all those lacking obscenity and urges to perform anatomically impossible acts receive a response.

Most are reasonable suggestions, but unworkable for the event for reasons of which the correspondent was unaware. Many are very good suggestions that have previously been tried. A few are excellent suggestions, which the Staff for the next event will implement.

☞ If you serve on the War Staff you'll get sued.

It's possible, but unlikely. I received a number of threats of tort litigation (4 of them from one person.) over 3 years, but so far, nobody seems to have actually filed suit. You can be sued as an officer of the Corporation. But- the "Corporate Veil" protects SCA Officers so long as they are not negligent, malfeasant or malicious. The Corporate insurance policy covers SCA Officers for their actions while in office. If you are conscientious and act in good faith, you shouldn't have anything to worry about while serving in any SCA office.

☞ The Americans with Disabilities Act applies to the Estrella War.

Absolutely false. The ADA applies to structures and governmental entities, not events. Estrella War has always bent over backwards to assist disabled attendees, but none of the services provided are required by any law or regulation.

☞ If I'm disabled I can rent my own golf cart for Estrella.

FALSE! The SCA, Inc., Estrella Park, the SCA's insurers, and all Estrella War Stewards have forbidden it for excellent safety and liability reasons.

Disabled attendees are welcome to bring motorized transportation devices such as handicapped scooters and motorized wheelchairs. The Event also offers a transportation service for the disabled.

☞ Estrella War offers Special Needs Services because it's required by law.

False. The service is offered purely out of concern and goodwill.

☞ Estrella War is legally required to offer full medical services.

False! The Event hires paramedics out of common sense given the activities and population of the event. SCA members on site as part of the Chirurgeonate are there to offer simple first aid and coordinate with the professionals. Neither the Estrella War nor the SCA are required to offer even first aid services at any event

☞ Only disabled people may use the Handicapped porta potties.

False. The War staff orders many extra Handicapped porta potties in order to accommodate the many extra yards of clothing we wear. If there is a wheelchair bound person in line, they should go first, of course.

☞ The Estrella War Site fee is outrageously high because War Staff are greedy.

First- As explained above, War Staff and volunteers don't personally benefit from a cent, and the event costs hundreds of thousands of dollars to put on. The non-SCA member, pre-registration Estrella War XXII site fee is $70.00 (SCA Members appropriately pay less). That comes out to $10.00 a day. Anyone who considers that "outrageous" is in need of a reality check. A discount matinee movie with popcorn would cost you more.

☞ If my car isn't where I parked it, it has been stolen.

It's far more likely that it was towed. Check with the Parking Autocrat and/or Security before you panic.

☞ Towing by War staff is illegal and a form of theft.

The parking restrictions are clearly stated and advertised and you agreed to follow them when you signed your waiver. If you park outside the boundaries of that agreement the staff has the right to tow your car. You will have to pay the towing fee to get it back.

☞ It's unreasonable to expect me to volunteer at Estrella because it's my vacation and I paid the high site fee.

Wake up call: The site fee is, in fact, ludicrously low (See above.) The only reason the site fee is so low is that the event runs on volunteer power. As volunteer hours drop, the event must hire out many of the jobs previously done by volunteers. This will raise the site fee considerably.

The Staff and volunteers are all on vacation too. The Staff have all sunk 18 months of their lives into making sure you have a good time at Estrella. If you attend Estrella, you have an obligation to do your part. Two hours out of a week is a pitifully small thing to ask.

☞ Atenveldters are the only people who volunteer at Estrella.

Atenveldt provides the majority of the volunteers, but many of our hardest working volunteers come from other kingdoms, and we are especially grateful to the Outlands and Caid.

☞ The War Stewards (“autocrats”) assign camping land at Estrella.

The event managers have absolutely NO say in this! Estrella land distribution is decided by treaty.

☞ There wouldn’t be a War without merchants.

I doubt it, though it might cut attendance some. But much as we would miss them, I’m old enough to remember that Wars that were resounding successes long before merchants were common at SCA events.

☞ The Estrella War is a combined SCA/Adria/ECS, etc., event.

Though anyone willing to pay the site fee and dress and behave appropriately is welcome to attend, Estrella War is exclusively an event of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.

☞ SCA groups honor the rank and regalia of other groups at Estrella.

I understand that a couple of previous Aten Crowns have extended this courtesy to members of other groups willing to fight for Atenveldt at Estrella. It was an unusual move and no longer seems to be something they are willing to do. Rank and regalia from other groups are not recognized or protected by the SCA.

☞ I have a right to expect Estrella to be just like Pennsic.

Ridiculous. You must also remember that Estrella is entirely volunteer run, while Pennsic is essentially run by Coopers Farm personnel

☞ I am perfectly safe at Estrella because it is just a gathering of “7,000 of my closest friends”.

Anyone who believes this one is an utter fool. This is only one of several places in this document where I will stress that SCA members are no better or worse than any other large collection of human beings. We attract the same proportion of thieves, thugs, drunks and goofballs. We also get quite a few attendees who are not members or otherwise participants in the SCA, and a number of these start out as thieves because they have sneaked in without paying site fees. You have the same danger of losing your car, camping equipment, and money as any other place and a greater risk of having your chainmaille stolen.

As an Estrella War Officer for a number of years, I can also attest that your chances of suffering accidental harm or being assaulted or raped are no less on a dark Estrella road than they would be on a dark Phoenix street.

Remember especially that you need to watch over your children with as much care as you would in any other public place!

Legalities of War

The SCA is a private club, so we can do whatever we want.

Not entirely. As a tax subsidized, educational corporation, we have certain duties and are held to certain standards that a purely private club would not be.

Because we're tax subsidized, we can't restrict anybody's behavior at events.

We have an absolute right and duty to restrict activities contrary to our avowed purposes and/or risky to our members, visitors, reputation and corporate integrity.

We can't restrict any activity at events that is otherwise legal.

The SCA and its branches have both the right and duty to restrict attendees from engaging in activities that are outside of or contrary to our purposes, risky to our reputation, offensive to our members, and/or hold the possibility of exposing us to legal risk.

The SCA restricts and regulates all kinds of activities that are arguably legitimately within the category of historical education, but which fall into the categories above, or which duly appointed officers might have need to otherwise restrict.

At an event I can do anything I want within my private encampment.

Your encampment is only "private" up to a point. Regardless of location within an event site, you may not violate laws or ordinances, site rules, SCA laws or policies, or the rights of fellow attendees. Further, you may not engage in behavior that might expose the SCA to risk of legal exposure or defamation.

If my household puts up canvas or other temporary walls around our encampment, the encampment becomes a private domicile and SCA officers have no say what goes on inside.

Canvas does not a domicile create- at least not in Arizona. Arizona law enforcement officers don't need a warrant to search your personal tent.

Everything that happens at an event is the responsibility of SCA officers and event stewards. You can be stopped or restricted from engaging in illegal, dangerous, offensive or even just plain obnoxious behavior inside or outside of your encampment.

There's no law against nudity at SCA events --or- Since the SCA is a private club, we can't stop it.

The SCA isn't exactly a "private club" (See above). Even if it were, public nudity is illegal in Arizona and in most other states. There are exceptions including artistic & medical endeavors, nudist colonies and adult businesses under certain narrow restrictions. There is no exception for Estrella War or any other SCA event--- Well... unless we decided to hold one at a nudist colony or a strip club.

If I declare my dog a "service dog", or myself a service dog trainer, the auto-crats can't make me leash it.

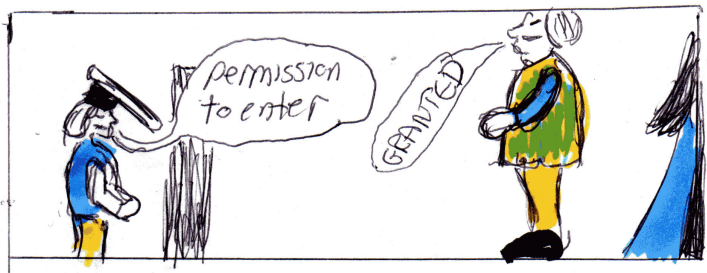

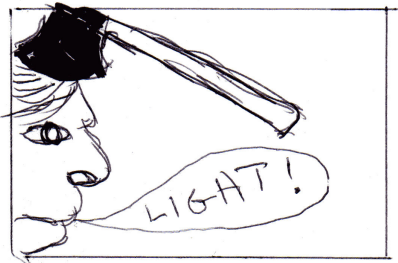

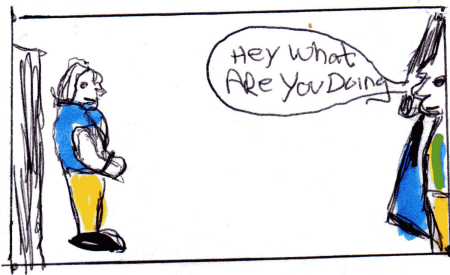

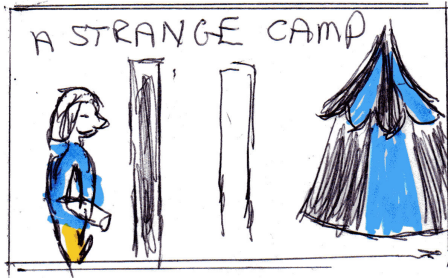

Service dogs are usually certified by one or more recognized organizations, and trainers usually have certification documents and in both cases service dogs are is sued special I.D. The SCA thinks service dogs are wonderful and a few of our members have them or train them.

Regardless, the Event Stewards and/or the site owners of any event have the right to demand that pets be on leashes and have the authority to remove those who refuse from event sites.

We are looking for everyone who has ever been interested in learning about the Scribal Arts. We welcome all, no matter your level of experience or skill. We would love to teach you how to paint, write calligraphy, or simply expand your knowledge of art from the Middle Ages.

BARONIAL WANT ADS

Regalia Officer (Open Until Filled)

Looking to get involved in the Barony but not sure how? The Regalia Office is ideal for individuals that enjoy helping with the set-up of event sites and decorations.

The Regalia Officer is responsible for the storage, transportation, and upkeep of the regalia and trailers. The Regalia Officer is also encouraged to recruit any deputies that may be needed. The position does involve some heavy lifting and moving. Interested individuals should have a vehicle available to them that can haul the trailer to events. The trailer has brakes installed and requires a brake controller in the vehicle pulling it.

The Regalia Officer reports to the Kingdom Regalia Office, as well as the Baronial Exchequer and Seneschal. All interested parties should submit a letter of intent to Their Excellencies and the Baronial Seneschal.

I will be available as a deputy officer for coaching and assistance until the end of this next Estrella War.

Lord Dóminic MacMorgan, Baronial Regalia Officer

Chancellor of the Youth (Open until Filled)

The young are the future of the SCA but without activities to provide them diversions at events they will have no desire to continue in the SCA. To that end the Barony is seeking a Chancellor of the Youth. The office is responsible for coordinating youth activities and ensuring compliance of the youths and their guardians with Society policies in coordination with the Seneschal staff at events. The job is what you would make of it and benefits from a large selection of deputies. As part of the ongoing improvements in the Society youth activity programs volunteer can expect a background check to be conducted by the SCA. Please contact the Seneschal for specific details of the background check program and what the background check would involve if this causes any concern.

If you are interested in the Office as the Chancellor or as a deputy please contact the Seneschal and their Excellencies with a letter of intent detailing your experience and the role you wish to assume

BARONIAL WANT ADS

Minister of Arts and Science

(Open until February 1, 2008)

The Office of Minister of Arts and Sciences is responsible for fostering the study of period culture and technology, and methods for producing historically accurate artifacts and performances. His/her duties include promoting the dissemination of accurate information about the fields under study. It is also the responsibility of the Minister of Arts and Sciences to help organize demonstrations, exhibitions, competitions, classes, workshops or deputies can do this. By all means do not feel you have to take on this job without help.

Every local A & S Officer must submit monthly reports summarizing the activities of the local group and local members. Being accessible to the Barony and keeping the populace educated about what is happening both locally and at the Kingdom level is a vital part of the job. Another important part of an A & S Officers' duty is communication with artisans so that each gets the help and recognition that is needed. The A & S Officer is responsible for promoting all aspects of the Arts and Sciences including period-inspired creativity, scholarly research or authentic research. Anyone who shows an interest in the arts and sciences should be encouraged thorough competitions, displays, teaching or performing, to name a few. The A & S Officer should also help at Kingdom A & S events and Collegiums whenever possible and actively recruit participants and teachers.

Hear Ye, Hear Ye!!!

Let it be known unto the populous of Atenveldt that the Baronial Officer's Meeting has changed locations. It still convenes on the first Monday of the month from 7:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m., but is now held at the Ellis-Shackelford House. The Ellis-Shackelford House is located at 1242 N. Central Ave, Phoenix, AZ.
