Greetings from the Coronet

Greetings to the Wonderful Populace of Atenveldt,

His Excellency and I wanted to thank all those who attended Baronial Champions. You made our first Baronial event enjoyable and fun. The competitions were well fought in all arenas which made selecting our Champions very tough. However, we know the Populace will be happy with the talented individuals who have stepped forward and accepted this responsibility for the next year. A special THANK YOU to all those who pitched in at the last minute and helped with our "Haunted Pavilion". It was great fun for the kids of both Sun Dragon and Atenveldt and I hope that we can do it bigger and better next year.

Congratulations to House Staghold for winning our Estrella War Land Competition. Their heraldry and period encampment was admired by many both within and outside our Barony. Thank you to all the Households that competed. You help promote the dream by providing a period atmosphere for us all to enjoy.

Two competitions were held at Southern Crusades. A combat cookery and a Hardsuit Champions' tourney. While the Barony did not win either competition, we would like to thank all the individuals who competed and we look forward to challenging the winners for these titles next year.

Our Baronial Yule is coming up on December 5th. It is a wonderful time to get together with our friends to eat, drink and be merry. We have a lovely "WET" site this year and the event will be a lot of fun. We hope that you will join us in this traditional Yuletide celebration.

"For it is in giving that we receive."

Greetings unto the Artisans of Atenveldt!

The Barony of Atenveldt will be hosting a populace choice Artisan display during it's Court night on Dec. 30th. Come out and display your works, network with other artisans and have a chance to win a prize! For the populace this is a good time to see what the artisans are doing and a chance to ask them questions of their works. So come out have fun and enjoy all of the pretties!

Yours in Service,

Master Ritchyrd McUath
Barony of Atenveldt's Arts and Science Champion

Greetings from your Chatelaine,

Are you brand new? Kinda new? Been playing for a little while, but still getting the hang of things? Know someone who is any of the above?

I'm now hosting newcomer's classes on the first Wednesday evening of each month during fighter practice, starting around 7:30pm.

The next class, for December, will focus on getting ready for Estrella. What to wear, what to bring, what to expect, etc. I'll also quickly go over what to expect for Yule!

Other upcoming classes may include:

- *Basic Garb, fabrics & easy construction

- *Slightly More Advanced Garb, focusing more on period techniques, where to find patterns, etc.

- *Name and Persona construction to be followed by--

- *Beginning Heraldry and intro to the submission process

Look for the Newcomer Table at fighter practice!

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions. redmorgaine at yahoo dot com

Atenveldt Drinking Song

Sung to: The Stonecutter Song

Words by: Lord Brian Ambrose O'Driscoll

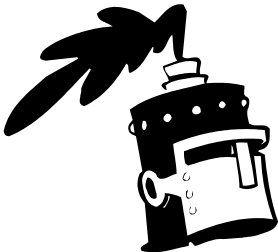

(This particular song was created by request of her Excellency)

To camping tournies in the park,
And all the Bucket after dark,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To Estrellas that are cold and damp,
As long as the high ground's for your camp
Let's Drink. Let's Drink
To Site Tokens nice enough to keep
To sounds of drums while drifting off to sleep
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To seamstresses plying their trade,
To Chiurgeons offering First Aid,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To People who like to be Autocrats,
And get their jollies herding cats
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To all those Volunteers giving hours,
They did theirs now let's go do ours!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To Michael of Moria's Old Laundry,
To Richard Ironstead's Telling a story,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To City Meetings wearing tights,
To Tournies featuring blindfold fights,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To Tir Ysgathir's being the first Barony,
Even if it means rewriting History!!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To Helmets made from a Freon Tank,
To hobbies that can drain the Bank,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To Duct Tape that holds armor on,
After you find your straps are gone,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To Waterbearers and the treasures they hold,
That Pickle's worth its weight in gold!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To Twin Moons' Middle Eastern Feast,
It's great fun to say the least,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To Ered Sul's holding of Highlands,
To tournies down in the Burning Sands
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To Chocolate Revel when it comes in the Fall,
Look at those treats, I could eat them all!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

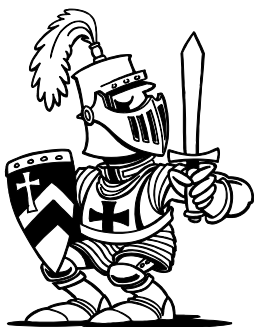

To Drummers and their wonderful sound,
That brings the pretty Dancers around,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To bards singing out upon the Lawn,
To parties that go on til Dawn,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To all the friends made over the years,
To the brewers who made these beers!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To brand new garb finally complete
To Art projects ready to complete,
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To Kilts that are worn regimentally
And to the lasses who want to see!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To what we've built over the years,
To the hard work of all the peers!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To rapier fighters fighting swishy poke,
Try it yourself you'll find it's no joke.
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To sword and Board, Greatsword and Spear,
Teach all Atenveldt's enemies to fear!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
To Atenveldt, Father of other Realms,
To all the dents we have in our helms!
Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To Skullbend coming from Morbid starts,
 To Staghold and their giants hearts,
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
 To Black Rose, Frogwhip, and Langskip too,
 they always help the Barony through!
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
 To the Mighty Warriors of The Company,
 To the Thunder Brothers everywhere we see!
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To new friends made as well as old,
 May they believe the tales they're told,
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
 To the dancers that we love to see,
 In hopes they'll give us their company,
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
 To all the friends we've lost over the years,
 Let us all now raise our beers!
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To courts that always turn out screwy,
 To giving scrolls by Jennifer Trethewy,
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
 To the Society as a whole,
 To the Dream that is our goal,
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
 To Atenveldt born of humble birth,
 over the decades we've shown our worth!
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

To Trebuchets flinging their fruit,
 And to avoiding a Police Pursuit!
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
 To Tow Trucks pulled out of the Muck,
 To grocery shopping dressed as Friar Tuck,
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.
 To the one question we hear every day,
 Are you on your way to a play?
 Let's Drink. Let's Drink.

Rapier Announcement

Some fine fighters in the rapier community are starting lessons for beginners at Wednesday night fighter practices. Classes start at 7:30 p.m. If you have ever wanted to learn to fight rapier, now is the time. Gear is not required for the first couple of classes. Some loaner gear will be available.

From Your Bardic Champion

Bardic Circle is held the 2nd Wednesday of each month at Fighter Practice from 8-9PM. Dates for upcoming circles are Dec. 9 and Jan. 13. This is a non-competitive, no pressure opportunity for bards to perform for an appreciative audience (both bards and audience members needed). Of the 9 competitors at the Bard of the Sun competition at Southern Crusade, 3 (myself, Donwena, and Jean Andre) were from the Barony of Atenveldt- way to go!

Estrella is coming! One of the categories in the A&S competition is group vocal performance. There will also be bardic competitions, classes, and artisan's showcase.

Finally, 'tis the season for giving, and I have no doubt that both Their Excellencies and Their Majesties are eager to give out lots of awards, so if you know anyone that you think deserves an award, put in a recommendation.

Lord Michael Sinestro-
Bardic Champion of the Barony of Atenveldt

The Estrella War Bardic Circle is ON!

The Barony of Ered Sul has graciously offered space for the circle, which will be held Wednesday from 8PM until whenever, family-friendly until 10PM.

As always, this is a no-pressure, non-competitive opportunity to perform and/or listen to bardics. All bards and all who like to listen to bards are welcome.

Again, Wednesday night at Estrella at the Ered Sul Baronial Pavillion (many thanks to His Excellency Baron Christopher for his hospitality).

Lord Michael Sinestro
Bardic Champion of the Barony of Atenveldt

Yule Customs in the Middle Ages

Compiled by Ailleann Inghean Fhrancaigh (mka MariAnn Holder-Webber) from Britannica, Wikipedia and other online sources

Yule is a winter festival originally celebrated by pagan Germanic people. The religious celebration was held in late December to early January, but later was absorbed into the festival of Christmas on December 25 as Northern Europe became Christianized.

The burning of a large wooden log in the hearth became part of traditional Yule celebrations in several European countries. The Yule log, like mistletoe, may have been part of the pagan ceremonies. The log itself was intended to symbolize the triumph over evil spirits, and a spark from last year's log was said to be preserved to light the next year's log.

Wassail, from Middle English meaning "be healthy", was the act of toasting the gods with a hot, spiced drink. Historical wassail drinks were likely to be beer or mead, heated and mulled with sugar, ginger, nutmeg, cinnamon, then topped with slices of toast as sops. Wassailing was the practice of going from door to door, singing carols, and exchanging blessings and goodwill for food and drink.

One of the most interesting customs of Medieval England was the election or appointment of a Lord of Misrule who led the festivities of the Yule season with much drinking and merry making, masques, mummeries and music. In the great houses and universities each Lord of Misrule was charged with designing and supervising the Yule entertainments and revelries. In small town and villages the Lord of Misrule was often elected to lead more boisterous celebrations, presiding over the Feast of Fools. This celebration included drunkenness and wild partying, in the tradition of the Roman Saturnalia, from which it may have been derived.

The association of the fir tree with the Yule began in Germany almost 1000 years ago when St. Boniface converted the German people to Christianity. He was said to have come across a group of pagans worshipping an oak tree, and in anger, cut it down. To everyone's amazement a young fir tree sprang up from the roots of the oak. This was taken as a sign of Christianity overcoming the pagan religions. In the late middle Ages, Germans and Scandinavians placed evergreen trees inside their homes or just outside their doors to show their hope in the coming spring.

Legend has it that Martin Luther began the tradition of decorating trees to celebrate the Yule. On a crisp Christmas Eve in the year of 1500, he was walking through a snow-covered wood and was struck with the beauty of a group of small fir trees,

This is a new section that will highlight common phrases and their origins. If you would like to contribute please email the Chronicler at trina@rentouch.com

This month's phrase is:
"red letter day"

Submitted by: Kirsten Matz

The following located in the Scottsdale edition of the Coffee News, November 13, 2009, volume 2:21.

"We sometimes call a special day a "red letter day." The saying dates back to the Middle Ages, when a rare day off work for a religious festival was marked on the calendar in red, thus, a 'red letter day.' Eventually, 'holy days' became 'holidays'."

Blanket and Coat Drive for the Homeless

As the weather cools, those people in our community who have fallen on hard times are in need of basic necessities like blankets and coats to see them through the winter season. I hope you will join me by donating commonly used household items for the homeless at the Central Arizona Shelter Services. CASS provides a total of 415 beds for single men and women at their main shelter each night and 30 apartments for homeless families. Last year, CASS served 4580 unduplicated homeless men, women and children. Their greatest needs are for blankets, new socks and coats (all sizes).

I will be collecting donations every Wednesday night at fighter practice and at any events His Excellency and I will be attending through our Baronial Yule on December 5th. For more information about CASS, visit www.cass-az.org.

Thanks for sharing. Have a wonderful Holiday season!

BARONIAL WANT ADS

Baronial Seneschal- The Seneschal is still accepting letters of intent to become the next Baronial Seneschal. Prior experience in being a Baronial officer is preferred. Thegn Rhys intends to step back to Deputy Seneschal in February of 2010. Join in now in order to be "in the groove" by that time!

Chancellor of the Youth- Wanted to provide diversions at events, coordinate smalls, and have an all around "cheery disposition".

Keeper of the Ropes- This individual should be able to set-up, tear-down, transport and store the ropes for the Barony's weekly fighter practice.

Deputy Exchequer- Helps with the financial records of the Barony.

Deputy Chronicler- Wanted to help with the production, writing, distribution of the Palm Prints.

If you wish to submit your letter of intent, or have any questions regarding the above offices, please send deputy inquires the appropriate office, all other inquiries to Seneschal@baronyofatenveldt.org

Autocrat Needed

Event Bids / Proposals are being accepted until December 3 for the spring baronial event. The Barony has a ONE DAY event on SUNDAY March 14. This is the day after Aurora's Feast, and one week after Crown Tourney. This is an excellent opportunity for a new autocrat to try their hand, a tourney planner to run that "something different", or for anyone who may be getting more active after some time off. If you have questions about this chance to make your vision come alive, contact the seneschal, Rhys or Their Excellencies.

dusted with snow and shimmering in the moonlight. When he got home, he set up a little fir tree indoors and decorated it with candles so he could share his experience with his children. They lighted the candles in honor of Christ's birth.

Decorated trees quickly became popular in much of Europe. There are records of a Christmas tree erected in the Cathedral of Strasbourg in 1539, and in Bremen in 1570 where guild members placed a small fir decorated with apples, nuts, dates, pretzels and paper flowers in their guild hall for their children. At the German Christmas markets bakers sold shaped gingerbreads and wax ornaments, and real silver tinsel was first used in Germany in 1610.

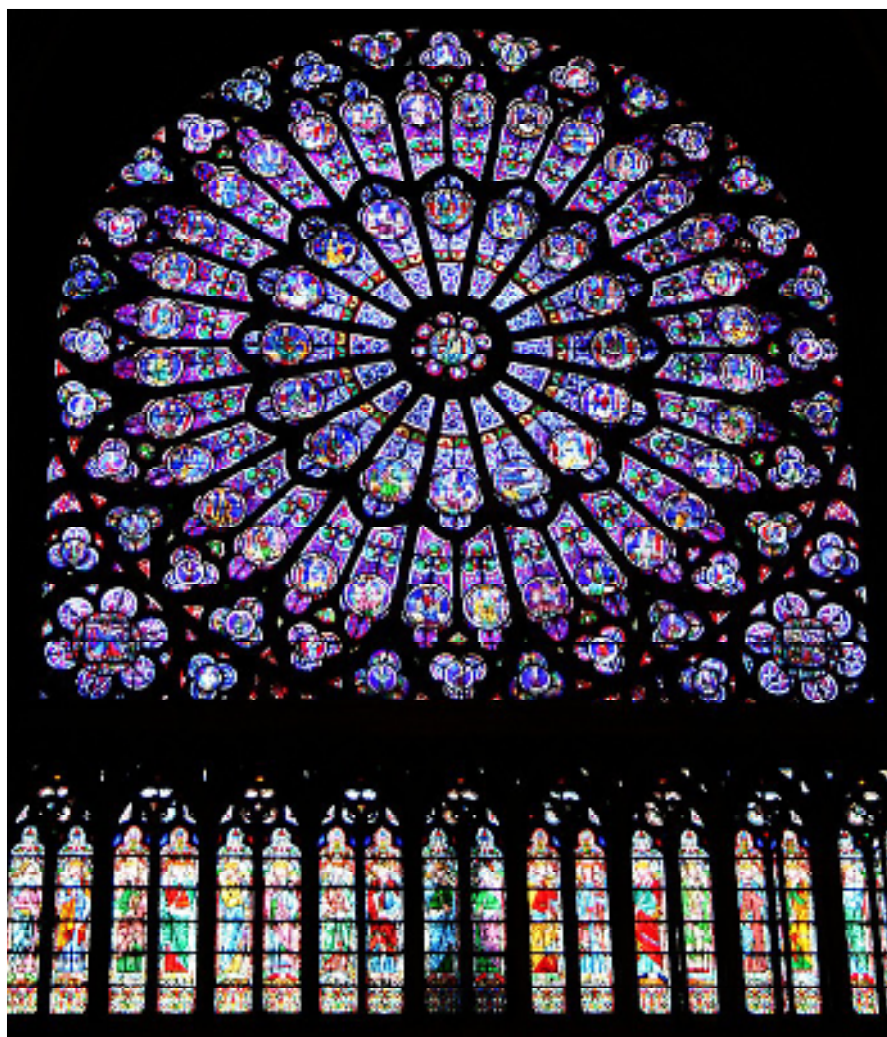

St. Nicholas was a Christian saint and bishop, born in Myra (in what is now Turkey) in 270 and died in Myra on Dec. 6, 346. He is the patron saint of children, sailors, fishermen, merchants, the falsely accused, repentant thieves, pharmacists, archers, and pawnbrokers. Known for helping the poor, he had a reputation for secret gift-giving, leaving coins in the shoes of those who left them out for him. After he died, people continued to give anonymous gifts to the poor, attributing them to Saint Nicholas. It is reported that medieval nuns used the night of December 6 to anonymously leave baskets of food and clothes at the doorsteps of the needy.

The Dutch name for Saint Nicholas is Sinterklaas, and modern day Dutch children leave their shoes beside the chimney on the night of December 5 with hay and carrots in them for Saint Nicholas' horse. (If they have been good, they receive small presents in their shoes the next morning. If they have been naughty, they are stolen away in sacks to Spain, from which they believe Sinterklaas comes.) Clearly, the images of Saint Nicholas have changed over the years, but he still remains a symbol of charity to the poor and gifts to children.
