Greetings from the Coronet

Unto the glorious populace of Atenveldt,

With the weather turning cold (well, at least, less hot), our minds turn to the wonderful holiday events ahead. Starting off with Baronial Champions on All Hallows Eve and ending with a Yule Celebration, the next couple of months will be a whirlwind of fun.

We hope everyone will join us at Coronation to bid a fond farewell to Their Majesties, Craven and Elzbieta and to welcome, Their Heirs, Eduard and Asa as they step up to lead the Kingdom of Atenveldt to victory at Estrella War.

Congratulations to Michael Sinestro for achieving the highest individual score in the category of Performing Arts at the Kingdom A&S Competition. We are proud of him and all the artisans who participated in this event.

We are excited to announce the Barony has a new home for Wednesday night fighter practice... Barrios Unidos Park. Initial comments from the populace have been very positive and we appreciate everyone's support during this transition time. Let the melees begin!!!

“If you never did you should. These things are fun and fun is GOOD!!”

Blanket and Coat Drive for the Homeless

As the weather cools, those people in our community who have fallen on hard times are in need of basic necessities like blankets and coats to see them through the winter season. I hope you will join me by donating commonly used household items for the homeless at the Central Arizona Shelter Services. CASS provides a total of 415 beds for single men and women at their main shelter each night and 30 apartments for homeless families. Last year, CASS served 4580 unduplicated homeless men, women and children. Their greatest needs are for blankets, new socks and coats (all sizes).

I will be collecting donations every Wednesday night at fighter practice and at any events His Excellency and I will be attending through our Baronial Yule on December 5th. For more information about CASS, visit www.cass-az.org.

Thanks for sharing. Have a wonderful Holiday season!

Games our Ancestors Played

Adapted from various sources by Ailleann inghean Roibert Fhrancaigh
(mka MariAnn Holder-Webber)

Dice and board games are truly ancient and came to us relatively unchanged from Egypt and oriental sources. Alphonso X , king of Castile (1221-1284) commissioned the first encyclopedia of games in European literature , a Book of Games, which contains illustrations of dice, chess, backgammon and other games. It contains 98 pages of drawings and each page is hand printed and illuminated.

Chess had its origins in the East, probably India, and was brought to Europe by the Arabs through Spain 800 -1000 C.E. It evolved and improved, reaching England about the time of the Norman Conquest. The shah became our king, Eastern cavalrymen were transformed into medieval knights and oriental foot soldiers became pawns. There were several variations of the pieces and their moves as played in various regions. Until 1475 the game was generally played using dice to speed up the game (apparently by setting up the pieces on the board according to throws of the dice), and there was also wagering on the outcome.

Cards like chess came to Europe through Spain though relatively late, in the thirteenth century. Cards were being played in Italy in 1320. In 1461 Edward IV forbade card playing except during Christmas. On 24 December 1484 Margaret Paston complained in one of her letters that cards were replacing caroling and other traditional yuletide customs. To this day our face cards are still decorated with English court costume of that century.

Estrella War Land Competition

Estrella War looms in the very near future, and all those planning to attend know the importance of land and its location. This year, Their Excellencies will be holding a contest that will give a house, clan, village or group the honor of camping in the best location in the Barony of Atenveldt. This is the Baronial land nearest to the battle fields and Merchants Row.

At Baronial Champions or at Southern Crusades, Their Excellencies ask that you bring ambience by flying banners, pennants, walls to show your esprit de corp for your group and Barony. You only need to display at one of these events. Their Excellencies and Their Cousins will be judging the best period display as seen from the road passing your gate. An announcement regarding the winning group will be made at Southern Crusades.

For questions regarding this competition, contact Lord Roland Childeric de Laon at rolanddelaon@cox.net.

Have you ever wondered?

This is a new section that will highlight common phrases and their origins. If you would like to contribute please email the Chronicler at trina@rentouch.com

This month's phrase is:
"Don't count your chickens before they hatch."

Submitted by: Kirsten Matz

This phrase originated from Aesop circa 570 B.C.

The following is from Trivia-Library.com (<http://www.trivia-library.com/b/origins-of-sayings-dont-count-your-chickens-before-they-hatch.htm>)

The Story behind It: This saying occurs in the fable "The Milkmaid and Her Pail." Patty, a farmer's daughter, is daydreaming as she walks to town with a pail of milk balanced on her head. Her thoughts: "The milk in this pail will provide me with cream, which I will make into butter, which I will sell in the market, and buy a dozen eggs, which will hatch into chickens, which will lay more eggs, and soon I shall have a large poultry yard. I'll sell some of the fowls and buy myself a handsome new gown and go to the fair, and when the young fellows try to make love to me, I'll toss my head and pass them by." At that moment, Patty tossed her head and lost the pailful of milk. Her mother admonished, "Do not count your chickens before they are hatched."

Combat Cookery

Their Excellencies wish to sponsor a combat cookery team at Southern Crusades. If you are interested in being a part of this team, contact Teri Wilkinson at 623-670-8665.

Autocrat Needed

Event Bids / Proposals are being accepted until December 3 for the spring baronial event. The Barony has a ONE DAY event on SUNDAY March 14. This is the day after Aurora's Feast, and one week after Crown Tourney. This is an excellent opportunity for a new autocrat to try their hand, a tourney planner to run that "something different", or for anyone who may be getting more active after some time off. If you have questions about this chance to make your vision come alive, contact the senechal, Rhys or Their Excellencies.

Barony of Tir Ysgithr & Barony March of Mons Tonitrus

Southern Crusades XI will celebrate the gallantry and glory of the Middle Ages! The armies of the Barony of Tir Ysgithr and the Barony March of Mons Tonitrus are pleased to host this exercise in the Arts of Glorious Combat, Creative Arts & Sciences and Service. The Warriors of Atenveldt can train in the Defense of Our Lands, as they meet for SOUTHERN CRUSADES XI – GALLANTRY & GLORY (see full details at www.southerncrusades.org).

As the heavy infantry of the Atenveldt Army musters, know that many are needed to support their Honorable task. Come November, bring your weapons, your families, bring bread and the comforts of the Hearth, to Winkelman, AZ to celebrate gallantry and glory!

Winkelman Flats is a 42-acre campground on the banks of the Gila River. There will be areas for young people to work on crafts projects, create art, play games, hear stories and much more. The children and teenagers will have a chance to work on a special project for the War creating tapestries depicting their War experiences. See the event Website and gatebook for additional information. As always, parents and guardians are encouraged to stay and participate in Youth Activities, and volunteers (especially those who are warranted SCA Officers) are always welcome.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: We ask all attendees to please sign up at Autocrat's Point for at least two hours of volunteer time to support this wonderful event! Each time you volunteer, you will receive three raffle tickets that are automatically entered in a Volunteer Raffle for prizes.
