TALLY HO!!!

Hello to the populous of Atenveldt. M'lady Linda and Lord Michael of Kilkenny, both members of House Inverted, will soon be running coursing for the barony.

If you haven't seen coursing before or don't know what it is, allow me to explain. This is a chance to show your dogs off, and give them a great workout. A coursing track pulls a lure for the dog to chase. Corners are added or removed to augment the difficulty. The machine runs the lure around the track and controls the speed so that any dog may have a chance to catch it's prize. It's great fun for the animal and owner alike.

Pending approval we will be running coursing at as many baronial and kingdom events as possible. HOWEVER, a coursing set is a large expense and we are asking for your help in purchasing the equipment, which costs about $800. If you would like to make a donation please seek out Michael at the weekly fighter practice and he will have further instructions.

Thank you,
M'lady Linda
Lord Michael of Kilkenny

The Royal Feast

“I’m Henry the Eighth I am, I am, I’m Henry the Eighth I am,” sang that king of noble girth. “Fetch me my Lord Chamberlain, for there will be a wedding on the morrow and I want to know how things progress.”

“You there, victualer, step forward. Have you procured the beasts and birds for the feast?”

“Beggin’ your pardon, me lord, but I’m still not sure of the number of each that you desire, sire!”

“Gadzooks, man do you have ears that heareth not? Come closer and listen well to this ditty, lest you end up on the spit instead of yonder boar.”

“One hundred-eighty head of bird and beast,
You’ll need to cook for my great feast,
Five hundred feet they have to stand on,
The number of each, now, you must land on.”

“Now get thee hence and victual, Michell.”

The young are the future of the SCA but without activities to provide them diversions at events they will have no desire to continue in the SCA. To that end the Barony is seeking a Chancellor of the Youth. The office is responsible for coordinating youth activities and ensuring compliance of the youths and their guardians with Society policies in coordination with the Seneschal staff at events. The job is what you would make of it and benefits from a large selection of deputies. As part of the ongoing improvements in the Society youth activity programs volunteer can expect a background check to be conducted by the SCA. Please contact the Seneschal for specific details of the background check program and what the background check would involve if this causes any concern.

My Estrella VIII

Words by: Lord Brian Ambrose O'Driscoll

Sung to: the First Noel

The first event that I had ever been
Was the Estrella that was attacked by the wind
My little dome tent held up through the night,
Even after the one next to me did take flight

CHORUS:

Oh Estrella Eight

Oh Estrella Eight

How I'll always remember,

Estrella Eight

I came by myself and camped all alone
but in the middle of the night an encampment had grown
A household camped round me and invited me in
I was new to the Society and hadn't a friend

CHORUS

I wandered around amazed at the sight
I sent a whole day just watching them fight
Rolling Thunder's drums could be heard in the air
You could find their encampment from anywhere

CHORUS

The night when the winds came, I had just lain down
When all of my body the tent did surround
I couldn't imagine what molded it to me
So I headed out of it so I could see

CHORUS

People rushed about in the middle of the night
Trying to ensure everyone was alright
Everyone was working hard to recover from the blow
All helping each other, even those they don't know

CHORUS

On Merchant's row many tents were knocked flat
But the fallen merchandise remained where it's at
Some where tied down before the Merchants arrived
Letting them come and see their Business survived

CHORUS

People thinking of others long before himself
Of Compassion and Brotherhood we had great wealth
Working side by side all the way to the dawn
Seeking out the poor people whose shelters were gone

CHORUS

Which Kingdom won that war? I really don't know.
The fighting took second to the wind that did blow
It was when I learned that we're more than we seem
And I saw all the good people who were living The Dream.

CHORUS

The Palm Prints is looking for submissions for the monthly puzzle. Please feel free to send your submissions to:

Thank you.

The Royal Feast Answer

There being 180 heads (i.e. 180 creatures in all), if all had been birds they would have had 360 feet. If all had been beasts, they would have had 720 feet. It is clear, therefore, that there were some of each. Suppose the numbers equal, the feet woul then count as under:

90 birds: 180 feet
90 beasts: 360 feet
(being an excess of 40
Over the stated number.)

Each bird added to the "bird" half (involving at the same time the deduc-tion there of one beast) produces a diminution of 2 in the number of feet.

As the equal division gives an excess of 40 feet, we must therefore deduct 20 beasts and add 20 birds.

This gives us	90	+	20	=	110 birds — 220 feet
	90	-	20	=	70 beasts — 280 feet
