The Ship is Sinking

(a.k.a. some thoughts on volunteering)

With all due respect please know that my words come from a place of working with, supporting, fostering and protecting the volunteers. So if I offend anyone know that that I did not mean to.

The problem: The Ship is Sinking

Solution: Save the ship

Process: While there are many ways we can save the ship...let us use the 'Bucket Theory'.

So we must ask some questions?

Do we have enough buckets?

As everyone been shown how to use the bucket?

Can the person lift the bucket?

Have arraignments been made to assist in the emptying of the bucket?

Does everyone know that they are welcome to use the bucket?

Can anyone use any bucket?

Do we have an alternative to the bucket (i.e. cooking pot)

Who is in charge?

Is anyone in charge?

Does everyone know who is in charge and what they are in charge of?

What do I do if someone takes my bucket?

Have we let people know that we need people?

What do I do if there is a hole in my bucket?

Solution: Drown

While this is a solution I can not live with (sorry for the pun) it is a true statement that in a volunteer organization people have the freedom to not volunteer. Furthermore, they not only have the right to not volunteer they have the right to not be hassled about not volunteering. Please, do not get me wrong; while I would be tempted to throw the person sitting in the deck chair overboard as I am emptying my bucket I simply do not have the right to by the rules we play by (nor, the time). Yet, trust me if they interfere they might 'accidentally' fall off the ship.

But, better yet, why are they sitting in the deck chair?

Has anyone told them that the ship is sinking?

Did they try to help and where turned away, treated badly, not trained, not included, or a thousand reasons I can not even begin to know or understand.

However, no matter what, they are entitled to sit in the deck chair in peace.

As always thank you for volunteering and for helping me save the ship.

Eden

From the Archery Champion

Greetings One and All, this last Sunday I hosted the monthly Atenveldt/Sundragon Archery Tournament and Chagon Shoot. We had a great turnout. I believe there were around 20 Shooters, including His Excellency of Atenveldt, Baron Otto. I would like to thank all of you that came out to shoot and support the tourney, as this was the first sponsored and ran by my person... the feedback was most welcome and I am glad you all had fun and enjoyed yourselves...

As to the Victors: Lord Dana the Unready took the Day by a single point.

M'lord Jeremiah of Atenveldt took second; Dana gifted his prize to him...

M'lady Tamalin (sp?) took third...

There was a lot of excellent shooting during the day. thank you all...

M'lady Tamalin regaled us with a story of the Chagons return called for another to step up and defeat it as it once more returned and was harrassing the populous by chomping on their Shoes??? most curious. I think it has a bit of dog in it somewhere... LOL

Anywho, after dodging many a flight of arrow, It was finally winged (literally, through both) and brought down by Lord Nephastus... All Hail the Chagon Slayer, or Winger as it may be... :0p

Thanks to all that brought the wonderful Munchies, from cookies to fruit and liquid refreshments...

I look forward to next months Tourney which shall be sponsored by Lady Guiliani of Sundragon...

In Service Always,

Lord Angus MacLeod

Kingdom Arts & Sciences Collegium

June 6–7, 2009

Barony of Atenveldt

I have been impressed with the urgency of doing.
Knowing is not enough; we must apply.
Being willing is not enough; we must do.
—Leonardo da Vinci (1452–1519)

Unto the Populace of Atenveldt, it is with the common desire to study, learn and apply new skills that the Kingdom of Atenveldt is announcing the 2009 Arts & Sciences Collegium on June 6–7.

If there are any last-minute additions for anyone wishing to teach at this year's Collegium, please send in your teacher registration no later than May 15. At this point, I can no longer guarantee advertisement for your class nor ideal scheduling; however, I will do my best. Teacher Registration is at the following link: <http://arts.atenveldt.com/ASEvents/AtenveldtKingdomCollegium.aspx>

This year we will be at a new site, Washington High School, located at 2217 W Glendale Ave, Phoenix, AZ 85021. This is an excellent location, situated just East of I-17 on Glendale Ave. So, it is fairly centralized and easy to get to. Approximately one mile to the north is a series of budget hotels that continues for several miles, making it easy for those traveling from out of town to find accommodations.

Dame Jennifer Trethewy has graciously agreed to be our “Crash-space Coordinator” for those looking to ease their budget.

Anyone that has space available for use, or is looking to find a place to crash, can contact her at jennifertrethewy@gmail.com. Please send information on available space to Dame Jennifer ASAP, and space requests no later than May 15.

The site will open at 8:00 am on Saturday with Troll opening at 8:30 am and classes beginning at 9:00 am. There will be a one hour lunch break at 12:00 noon, and a small sideboard will be offered. Classes will resume at 1:00 pm and continue to 4:00 pm. Kingdom Court will commence from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm (or, at Their Majesties discretion). On Saturday, site will close at 6:00 pm or at the close of court. The following day (Sunday), site and Troll will open at 8:30 am, with classes beginning at 9:00 am. Classes will continue for 4 hours, ending at 1:00 pm, and the site will close at 1:30 pm. (The schedule may change at Their Majesties discretion.)

Because this is a public high school, there are a few restrictions that we need to be mindful of. This will be a dry site, and there is no smoking allowed on the premises. However, brewing classes will be permitted as long as there is no drinkable alcohol used on site. There are NO metal blades permitted on site (this includes decorative and Rapier blades). If you bring feast gear, please try to bring plastic knives with it.

In addition to the classes being offered, Saturday will have a few additional options available. Mistress Marta and Lady Helena have agreed to offer a Heraldry Consultation Table all day on Saturday. We will also have space for several merchants to be on site. If there are local merchants interested in setting up a table, please contact me directly no later than May 30.

In regards to lunch on Saturday, there will be a small sandwich sideboard offered. At this particular location, there are several fast food places within a mile or two, as this school is located one mile north of Spectrum/Christown Mall. So, those choosing to go off site for food have many options available. Of course, people are free to bring their own food on site.

This event has a $12 site fee for adult members, $15 for adult non-members, and a $3 fee for youth under 18 years old.

This site is fairly centrally located near I-17 and Glendale Ave. For those coming into Phoenix via I-10 (from the East Valley, Southwest Valley, Tucson, Casa Grande, Yuma, etc.), the best route would be to take I-10 to the "stack interchange" with I-17 and get onto I-17 North. Approximately 5 miles north of the "stack interchange" on I-17 is the Glendale Avenue exit. Take the Glendale Avenue exit and turn right/east. The school will be 2 blocks east of I-17 on the right-hand/south side of Glendale Avenue. Turn right/south on 23rd Avenue to enter the parking lots for the Collegium. For those coming into Phoenix via I-17 (from the North Valley, Prescott, Flagstaff, etc.), the best route would be to take I-17 South and continue approximately 9 miles south of the interchange between I-17 and Loop 101 to Glendale Avenue. Exit at Glendale Avenue and turn left/east. The school will be 2 blocks east of I-17 on the right-hand/south side of Glendale Ave. Turn right/south on 23rd Avenue to enter the parking lots for the Collegium.

For more information on this event, lists of local hotels and restaurants, class schedules and descriptions (upcoming), and more, please check the Kingdom A&S Website (listed above) regularly for any updated information. If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to contact me directly.

Yours in service,

Highland War XV: Battle of the Bandits

Flagstaff, AZ

June 11-15, 2009

The Northern Army and their numerous allies have stopped the Southern invasion of Ered Sul but at what cost? For Barons and Knights and Noble Warriors and Artists must return home to tend to their estates, while mercenaries and storm-crows can remain behind, plotting.

It has been 6 months and the Bandit Lords are poised to fight one another for control of the region. The various Nobilities of the Kingdom, treasuries drained from 3 different wars, are unable to mount a campaign and must watch as the fate of the Ered Sul wilderness is determined.
