Greetings from the Coronet

Warmest greetings to all who read these letters. Over the July fourth weekend much of our populous experienced very high temperatures. For those who went to battlemoor there was some reprieve, but not without cost. We traveled with some very fine individuals from this Barony to battle the wind and some Outlanders. The wind was devastating for some as tents were shaken, rattled, torn, broken, and blown away. For any who have attended an Estrella war, an occasional wind storm has been weathered. This was different, this was all night, most nights. We were beginning to believe that this was an everyday event, however like rain in the desert this to did give way to good weather. We thank all who traveled with us and all whom we met as a great time was had despite the windy nights. As we look forward to august, high temperatures are sure to continue. We plan to escape the heat by attending Sun Dragon's air conditioned cool indoor out of the glorious sun Ren man/woman. We will then be traveling to Mons Tonitrus for the investiture of the 10th Baron and Baroness of that fine march. We would love your help in showing both the outgoing and incoming nobility the great generosity of our Great Barony with any items to fill the baskets of the outgoing and or the incoming Baron and Baroness. Just seven days after that we will make our way to Middle East Feast for more indoor fun and cool drumming and dancing. As you all have heard, His Majesty has requested that every able bodied, qualified fighter in the kingdom fight for the right to reign as King. As the voice of the Crown to the populace, and the voice of the populace to the Crown we will lead by example and enter this crown list. Because this same oath and fealty that encourages us to take on this challenge also gives our word to lead this Barony, Annalies will consort to Duncan Bane Fuar Bhathais, and Edward will fight for Collette d'Avignonon. The deadline for letters of intent to the Crown and Seneschal is only days away as we write this missive. We would also like to proudly announce that we will move our Wednesday night fighter practice to Encanto Park on Wednesday, September 8th. Look for more important announcements regarding the move.

In Service,

Edward

Reminder about Wednesday Practice

Just a reminder that our last fighter practice at Barrios Unidos Park this summer will be August 25th, the last Wednesday of the month. We'll be practicing on the sports field at Encanto Park (south side of Encanto Boulevard, west of 12th Ave) Wednesdays from September 8th through Estrella War. Pass word along to all your friends!

That leaves our September 1st practice, the Wednesday before Crown Tourney, still open. After consultation with Their Excellencies, I am extending an invitation to the Barony to hold fighter practice at my place that evening, a couple blocks east of 12th Street and Osborn. There'll be full detail in the next Palm Prints (not to mention at August Court Night and on the Baronial email list) but the general outline is, I have a *big* back yard and lots of parking right next door. I'll have some tables and coolers with ice on the patio, plus a large grill well stocked with hot coals. Bring chairs, beverages, and food (grillable and otherwise) as you like. For those wanting to fight, there'll be a lighted forty by eighty foot grass area. And for any not-yet fighters interested in giving that hardsuit thing a whirl, I'll have an assortment of loaner armor available plus a couple of pells.

Farewell from your Baronial Chronicler

It is with many fond memories that I leave the Baronial Chronicler's office of this great Barony. I have been proud to serve the Barony of Atenveldt in this function these past three years, but have now found a "higher calling", as it were. As of this month, I will be taking up the duties of Acting Kingdom Chronicler. I appreciate all those who have supported me to this point with their many submissions and helpful suggestions. I ask that you continue to be so kind to the next person to fill this job. Please look at the Officer's Want Ad section of this issue for information on being that next individual.

This does not mean that I will disappear. I would be happy to see each and everyone of you at Baronial Anniversary, which I am autocrating. Also, please continue to send me photos and submissions for the Book of Days calendar, trina@rentouch.com. Lady Arianna Marie Della Luna and myself will be working very diligently to bring you a wonderful calendar this year. Don't forget there is a prize for the winning cover art this year.

Time is Running Out to Submit Your Entry for...

*The Very First Book of Days
Cover Competition*

We are looking for an original piece of artwork based on any period piece of artwork. We only ask that you include somewhere in the design the Baronial heraldry, both the flaming laurel wreath & the populous badge, the twin palms. Calligraphy is optional, you may include the title "The Barony of Atenveldt's Book of Days 2011", or we can add it later. Artwork not chosen for the cover may still be used elsewhere in the calendar. Artwork for this competition or submissions for inside the Book of Days, as well as questions & suggestions may be emailed to me at the address below or see me at practice, before September 15. All works will require a signed release which can be obtained in the files section of the Baronial newsgroup, by emailing me, or in person at practice. I will be contributing a $20 gift certificate to Arizona Art Supply for the winner of this competition.

BARONIAL

-Baronial Chronicler & Deputy-

Can you think outside the box? Do you have a somewhat organized mind? Do you enjoy a creative challenge? Then I have the job for you. The Barony of Atenveldt is seeking a new Chronicler to begin immediately and this could be you. Previous desktop publishing experience a plus, but not necessary (will happily train). Good people skills are a bonus that makes it easier to get articles every month. The right individual needs to be willing to put together and distribute the Palm Prints on a monthly basis and oversee the yearly Baronial Book of Days calendar.

Interested individuals should email chronicler@baronyofatenveldt.org or contact their Excellencies and/or the Seneschal directly.

-Baronial Exchequer & Deputy-

This is a two-year warranted position. The Baronial Exchequer reports to the Kingdom Exchequer, and is in charge of all financial activities for Baronial accounts. The Baronial Exchequer compiles financial information & reports to the Baronial Financial Committee. The position requires an ability to tactfully work with Baronial Officers and members of the populace; an understanding of the implementation of SCA financial guidelines in the Society Financial Policy, Baronial Law and Baronial financial policy; strong writing and organizational skills; word processing and email skills; and a computer and printer with Internet access (most communication is via email). Prior experience as a Exchequer or Officer for a Local group is very helpful, as is real-world management and personnel experience.

Applications should include an SCA resume, and an outline of applicable real world experience.

Send copies to: the Exchequer of the Barony of Atenveldt
<exchequer@baronyofatenveldt.org>.

In addition, a filled out Warrant of Appointment to Financial Office Form (found on the www.sca.org website at <http://www.sca.org/docs>), and the documents requested by that form, (picture ID and proof of membership), must also be sent to the Kingdom of Atenveldt Exchequer.

WANT ADS

-Baronial A&S Ministry & Deputy-

The Office of Minister of Arts and Sciences is responsible for fostering the study of period culture and technology, and methods for producing historically accurate artifacts and performances. His/her duties include promoting the dissemination of accurate information about the fields under study. It is also the responsibility of the Minister of Arts and Sciences to help organize demonstrations, exhibitions, competitions, classes, workshops or deputies can do this. By all means do not feel you have to take on this job without help.

Every local A & S Officer must submit monthly reports summarizing the activities of the local group and local members. Being accessible to the Barony and keeping the populace educated about what is happening both locally and at the Kingdom level is a vital part of the job. Another important part of an A & S Officers' duty is communication with artisans so that each gets the help and recognition that is needed. The A & S Officer is responsible for promoting all aspects of the Arts and Sciences including period-inspired creativity, scholarly research or authentic research. Anyone who shows an interest in the arts and sciences should be encouraged thorough competitions, displays, teaching or performing, to name a few. The A & S Officer should also help at Kingdom A & S events and Collegiums whenever possible and actively recruit participants and teachers. Interested individuals should email arts@baronyofatenveldt.org or contact their Excellencies and/or the Seneschal directly.

-Ministry of the Lists-

This brave individual must be willing to run all aspects of a tournament list. From bullying people into signing in for a tournament, with their fighters' cards, to working with the vocal herald during the tournament, and finally to the organized end of declaring the victor. Interested persons should contact their Excellencies or the Seneschal.

-Waiver Secretary-

This job entails keeping track of which warranted fighters are fighting at the weekly fighter practice and getting waivers signed by those that must sign each week.

-Chancellor of the Youth-

Wanted to provide diversions at events, coordinate smalls, and have an all around “cheery disposition”.

-Keeper of the Ropes-

This individual should be able to set-up, tear-down, transport and store the ropes for the Barony’s weekly fighter practice.

-Regalia Officer-

This individual should be able to store and/or tow the Baronial trailer with included Regalia. As well as, keep an inventory of the Regalia.

-Deputies for all Major Offices-

“Many hands make work light,” and every office in the Barony could use a deputy. It is also a great way to learn about a position before taking the job yourself.

*****

If you wish to submit your letter of intent, or have any questions regarding any of the offices, please send deputy inquiries to the appropriate office (contact information listed in the front of this issue), all other inquiries may be sent to:

How to submit an Individual for a Baronial Award

By Kirsten Maria Matz

You want to do an amazingly helpful thing, make an award recommendation. The Crown and the Coronets cannot possibly keep track of all the wondrous things those of their populous are doing each and every minute. So, don't be afraid, they want you to submit those recommendations.

First things first, you've found that "oh so" deserving individual. The next very helpful thing is to determine if that person is a paid member. Awards can only be given to paid members. If they aren't, maybe it's time to convince them the usefulness of having a membership. After all, they get into events cheaper, right?

Membership requirements now aside, which award covers the deeds of this most noble individual? You can find this information out several ways. You can look on-line, both the Kingdom (<http://www.atenveldt.org/Heraldry/OverviewofKingdomofAtenveldtAwards.aspx#Kingdom>) and the Baronial (<http://baronyofatenveldt.org/>) websites have descriptions of the different awards. You can also read the following pages, which cover a brief description of the Awards for the Barony of Atenveldt. Finally, you could always ask. There are many people who would be happy to help you sort it out, including their Excellencies, your local officers, or those not so rare SCAdian dinosaurs

Now, you know the person and the award you want to recommend them for. Submission of the award recommendation can be done in writing and mailed to the appropriate Crown or Coronet. By far the easiest thing to do though, is to fill out the on-line submission form. On the Barony of Atenveldt's website the submission form has a link directly below each of the different award descriptions, nice and easy. In any case, you will want the following information in the award recommendation submission:

Your society name
Your modern name
Your recommendation's society name
Your recommendation's modern name
Pick the Award you are recommending them for
Description of why they deserve the award

At this point, your job isn't quite done. It is sometimes helpful to have others submit a recommendation for the same person. This allows those in a position to give the award to have a better picture of the individual and how truly deserving they are. Finally, get the person to Court. If they never go to Court, they won't realize the fun they're missing, and will never get the award. This author has personally seen somebody get a three year past due award because they never came to court.

Award recommendations are no harder than that. Help your reigning Royalty and make those recommendations.

YIS,
Kirsten Matz

Baronial Anniversary

September 11, 2010

Barony of Atenveldt

It's a wonderful time to celebrate.

Feasting, games, and dancing, we'll have something for everyone.

As has now become the tradition, it is time to pick a new lord and lady of love. The couple need not be a married pair. The lord and lady of love must display all of the courtly graces. There will be people to judge, randomly selected and unknown to any of the participants. The general populace will be able to select their favorite by the old fashion form of bribery- each Contestant will get a fixed amount of coin to bribe the populace with. There may also be a brief quest for each contestant to do.

Then by mid-afternoon, hungry as everyone will be, we can enjoy the feast. This year's feast will have the Barony providing the main dish, water, tea and lemonade. The populace is asked to provide sides, potluck style. The catch is that we are asking you, the populace, to incorporate some sort of heraldry into your dish for the subtlety competition. Let that creativity flow and show us what you and your food are made of. Participation in the subtlety competition is not required, but we are asking that you bring a side large enough to feed 8-10 people. Feast questions should be directed to Lady Kirsten at trina@rentouch.com.

This year's Baronial Anniversary will be held at the Fraternal Order of Eagles Hall, located at 2314 E Apache Blvd, Tempe, AZ 85281 (Check your favorite mapping site, Mapquest/GoogleMaps, for the best directions). There is a Light Rail stop conveniently located in front of the hall and the hall is on the North side of the tracks. This is a WET site and Arizona Bar laws apply. All liqueur must be purchased from the bar on site. Site opens at 10 am and closes at 5pm.

Greetings from your Baronial Bardic Champion.

The monthly bardic circle continues on the 2nd Wednesday of each month at baronial fighter practise. Ren Man is coming up. Although this is a SunDragon event, it is open to everyone and has been won by members of our barony in the past. See your Southwind for details.

Kingdom A&S competition will be here before you know it. I would really like to have some competition in performing arts. Then it will be time to choose new baronial champions. Remember, I will not be competing for bardic champion this year; I will be helping their Excellencies judge. Soon coronation will be here, and with it the Bard of the Sun competition. I would like to see our barony really shine. Finally, I have a new email address: MIKEZACHARY@netzero.net (my WebTV died).

This Month's Word/Phrase is:
Many Hands Make Light Work

Submitted by:
Kirsten Matz

This phrase is set to mean that the more people helping the easier, or quicker, the task will be to complete. When we put our minds to it, I have definitely seen this in action in our Barony. The first record I have found for this particular phrase is in a reference to a 1300s piece entitled Sir Bevis of Hampton:

"Ascopard be strong and sterk [physically powerful], Mani hondes maketh light werk! "<sup>1</sup>

This proverb may also be found in other texts such as Proverbs, by John Heywood. Heywood being an individual employed at the courts of Henry VIII. Though Heywood was not the originator of the idiom he certainly played a part in helping it become more widely known.

(This article will be publish in it's entirety over the next several months.)

BY: Lord Jean andre' Boeye'

This is an overview of all the suggestions made to me by those far more experienced to correct my rookie mistakes before, during and after the event. There were many people that helped me along the way and the after the event autocrat staff meeting was truly enlightening. This is where I learned the most. I have also had several people make suggestions since the event to help me streamline the process in the future and this is by no means my work, but a collection of all the good advice that I received. Some of it took repeated reminders from several people who will be thanked at the end of this article to finally get through.

The first thing I will say is that the time table can be condensed if you have the staff to do so by shortening things from 10 months down to eight. Just take everything from the list for 10 months, 9 months, and 8 months and do all of it in the 8 month area. You should not attempt to condense it down any further because this would make it very difficult to get the bid completed and turned in on time. You will also find that you want to be able to spread things out and double check yourselves as often as possible between the time the bid is approved and two months before the event.

10 months before event:

1. Look at several sites, find out about any restrictions, booking policies, prices, dry, damp or wet, smoking or not camping or available lodging etc.
2. Pick feast-o-crat, deputy autocrats etc. Determine what kind of event you want to hold, if you have something for everyone, Hard suit, rapier, youth, archery, A&S, hill potatoes etc. Decide what kind of feast, if any, you want or if it will be pot luck etc. Contact all the people on your list and confirm that they wish to be involved in the capacity that you wished, Thank each one and set up your staff meeting schedule.
3. Contact the officers at the group level (shire, keep, canton, fort, college, Barony, Principality, Kingdom, etc.) to see what they would like to see at the event. Also check to see if they can help in the planning, most officers have some responsibilities for events held by their group. Thank each person you contact.
4. For kingdom evens Contact the Kingdom calendar officer and find out who the sponsoring Barony is. For smaller groups contact the Seneschal, they may also be able to help with suggestions or help guide you through the paperwork for the bid process. Thank each person you contact.

People have been marking and celebrating the Autumnal Equinox for thousands of years. The Great Sphinx which was constructed over 4500 years ago on the Giza Plateau in Egypt, faces due east on the Vernal Equinox. The monoliths located at Stonehenge, which are estimated to be over 3000 years old, mark the position of the rising sun on it, as well. In Central America the Ancient Mayan Caracol Tower and Temples of the Sun and Moon also have alignments that coincide with the sun's position during this Equinox.
