Greetings from the Coronet

To all of Noble birth (Thats you) who read this missive, do Baron Edward and Baroness Annalies send warmest greetings.

We are proud to say that we are most pleased with the month of May and all who participated in any merriment thereof. We would like to expressly thank Their Most Royal Majesties who graced us with their radiance and their tournaments at Pilgrims' Progress, as well as our cousins and all who visited. We would also like to speak favorably of a few households that have contributed greatly this month. House Inverted has expressed the desire to practice the melees a couple times a month at and several other fighter practice sessions. We are familiar with them a worthy service that House certain that most performed at the great job and Pilgrims' Progress and we want to Staghould make certain that all know that any small group can prove true the adage that many hands make light work. We look forward to House Staghold joining the autocrat mentor program for those who wish to head up events but feel that they don't know where to start. We are compelled to mention the most supportive house Loredan and the mighty fighting group known as the Company Of The Golden Spur whom did an outstanding job in supporting the Rett Syndrome Foundation Tournament. We could spend the quill of a thousand fowl in the good deeds of our populace but alas then none would have time to serve nor enjoy their own good deeds, we would however want you to know of Lady Angelika von Schwaben who has never lost sight of Her Excellencies dream to increase pageantry in your Barony. While many people spent some time on this project, Angelika has given much time to both of the new wonderful baronial banners. She has recruited others and proven to many that such work is fun when she is involved. We regret that the wind was such that we could not fly this outstanding work.

Let us now look to the future where on June 4th, Highlands war kicks off a weekend of fighting, feasting, and fun of all kinds. Although your Baroness can not attend, Baron Edward hopes you will join him in attendance of such a rebellious event. The rest of June will be filled with Kingdom A&S Collegium, Sun Dragon A&S / Fabric War, and Twin Moons Baronial Birthday. Keep in mind that we will kick off July with Battlemoor and follow it up with the Barony of Atenveldt War Collegium on July 10th and 11th.

We are always looking for those who wish to serve as an officer or deputy in our Barony, recommendations of those who deserve award, and autocrats for upcoming events. The bid for our September and October events are already past due and the bid for Yule is due on June 1st. Events without bids are in jeopardy of being cancelled, this is most disconcerting because we can only give the commander award at two events a year. Those are traditionally Baronial Birthday and Yule.

We look forward to seeing all of you in the near future.

In Service,

Edward

Baron

Annalies

Baroness

Autocrats Needed

Bid deadlines for the following events are:

- ◆ September 11, Anniversary by ASAP.
- ◆ October 23-24, Champions by ASAP.

This is an excellent opportunity for a new autocrat to try their hand, a tourney planner to run that "something different", or for anyone who may be getting more active after some time off. If you have questions about this chance to make your vision come alive, contact the Seneschal, or Their Excellencies.

Greetings From Your Baronial Chronicler

Hey everybody just wanted to bring your attention to a few points of interest.

- ♣ We have Baronial scriptoriums in full swing see the ad for the new day and time.
- ♣ Archery is now practicing an hour earlier on Sunday. Friday nights are also a happening thing, for further details look inside the back cover of this issue.
- ♣ We need event bids, please don't be afraid to try something new. Even if you've heard someone else is working on a bid, it is always better for their Excellencies to have something to compare and choose from.
- ♣ The War Collegium is coming up and we need you. I'm sure everybody out there has a favorite part of war, why not teach a class about it. For instructions on becoming a teacher see page 16.
- ♣ Last, but not least I need pictures and artwork for the Baronial Book of Days, which is the calendar the Barony gives the populous at Yule every year. Please email me at chronicler@baronyofatenveldt.org for instructions on submitting pieces for this community project. See below for information on the cover competition.

The Very First Book of Days Cover Competition

We are looking for an original piece of artwork based on any period piece of artwork. We only ask that you include somewhere in the design the Baronial heraldry, both the flaming laurel wreath & the populous badge, the twin palms. Calligraphy is optional, you may include the title "The Barony of Atenveldt's Book of Days 2011", or we can add it later. Artwork not chosen for the cover may still be used elsewhere in the calendar. Artwork for this competition or submissions for inside the Book of Days, as well as questions & suggestions may be emailed to me at the address below or see me at practice, before September 15. All works will require a signed release which can be obtained in the files section of the Baronial newsgroup, by emailing me, or in person at practice. I will be contributing a $20 gift certificate to Arizona Art Supply for the winner of this competition.

BARONIAL WANT ADS

-Baronial Exchequer- -& Emergency Deputy Exchequer-

This is a two-year warranted position. The Baronial Exchequer reports to the Kingdom Exchequer, and is in charge of all financial activities for Baronial accounts. The Baronial Exchequer compiles financial information & reports to the Baronial Financial Committee. The position requires an ability to tactfully work with Baronial Officers and members of the populace; an understanding of the implementation of SCA financial guidelines in the Society Financial Policy, Baronial Law and Baronial financial policy; strong writing and organizational skills; word processing and email skills; and a computer and printer with Internet access (most communication is via email). Prior experience as a Exchequer or Officer for a Local group is very helpful, as is real-world management and personnel experience.

Applications should include an SCA resume, and an outline of applicable real world experience.

Send copies to: the Acing Exchequer of the Barony of Atenveldt
<exchequer@baronyofatenveldt.org>.

In addition, a filled out Warrant of Appointment to Financial Office Form (found on the www.sca.org website at <http://www.sca.org/docs>), and the documents requested by that form, (picture ID and proof of membership), must also be sent to the Kingdom of Atenveldt Exchequer.

-Ministry of the Lists-

This brave individual must be willing to run all aspects of a tournament list. From bullying people into signing in for a tournament, with their fighters' cards, to working with the vocal herald during the tournament, and finally to the organized end of declaring the victor. Interested persons should contact their Excellencies or the Seneschal.

-Deputies for all Major Offices-

"Many hands make work light," and every office in the Barony could use a deputy. It is also a great way to learn about a position before taking the job yourself.

-Baronial A&S Minister-

The Office of Minister of Arts and Sciences is responsible for fostering the study of period culture and technology, and methods for producing historically accurate artifacts and performances. His/her duties include promoting the dissemination of accurate information about the fields under study. It is also the responsibility of the Minister of Arts and Sciences to help organize demonstrations, exhibitions, competitions, classes, workshops or deputies can do this. By all means do not feel you have to take on this job without help.

Every local A & S Officer must submit monthly reports summarizing the activities of the local group and local members. Being accessible to the Barony and keeping the populace educated about what is happening both locally and at the Kingdom level is a vital part of the job. Another important part of an A & S Officers' duty is communication with artisans so that each gets the help and recognition that is needed. The A & S Officer is responsible for promoting all aspects of the Arts and Sciences including period-inspired creativity, scholarly research or authentic research. Anyone who shows an interest in the arts and sciences should be encouraged through competitions, displays, teaching or performing, to name a few. The A & S Officer should also help at Kingdom A & S events and Collegiums whenever possible and actively recruit participants and teachers.

-Web Minister-

The Barony is seeking a new Web Minister. Qualified Candidates must have a working knowledge of HTML, available to keep the website content current and comfortable working with Baronial Officers.

-Waiver Secretary-

This job entails keeping track of which warranted fighters are fighting at the weekly fighter practice and getting waivers signed by those that must sign each week.

-Chancellor of the Youth-

Wanted to provide diversions at events, coordinate smalls, and have an all around "cheery disposition".

MORE GAMES OUR ANCESTORS PLAYED

Edited and compiled by Ailleann inghean Fhrancaigh
(MKA MariAnn Holder-Webber)

Golf

When did golf begin? The Great East window of England's Gloucester Cathedral, installed about 1340, depicts a small figure in a tunic, tights, and soft pointy shoes swinging what appears to be a golf club. This rendering in glass predates any Scottish written records of the game by about 60 years. Perhaps the game depicted in the window was actually a predecessor of golf.¹

The word “golf” appears to come from the Dutch, who played a game with a ball or disk and curved sticks called kolven on a court called a kolf. The Chinese in the eight century had a game with tees, holes in the ground marked by flags, hardwood balls and clubs with bamboo shafts and hardwood heads. Yet Scotland is considered modern golf's homeland. (Scots mercenaries had traveled to Holland and may have brought back the rudiments of the games.) By the middle of the fifteenth century golf was so popular that it was interfering with military training. So, in 1457, Scotland's King James II banned the game, encouraging his men to practice archery instead.

Evidently the ban didn't work and a few years later James IV took up the game himself and wagered at golf with the Earl of Boswell. In 1552 Saint Andrews Golf Club, the oldest in the world, was founded.

By the end of the sixteenth century golf had been embraced in Great Britain by the rich and powerful. Mary, Queen of Scots, was the first woman known to have played the game, and her son, James VI, took his clubs with him when he ascended the English throne as James I in 1603.

Golf equipment made prior to 1850 is very rare. Clubs were made of alder and the balls that Renaissance-era royalty played with were probably made of boxwood. Not until the seventeenth century did a leather ball, stuffed with feathers, appear ².

Tennis

Mention King Henry VIII and most of us can immediately conjure up his image, usually from the Holbein portrait of 1540. Now imagine this robust (rotund) figure in silk great coat and lace running up down the tennis court intense and sweaty. Not likely, you say, but true. Tennis was a favorite game of the younger Henry and Anne Boylen.

“Real” (royal) tennis was played in France in the twelfth century especially in monasteries. At first the ball was hit with the hand, but later a glove, and then a glove with strings stretched across them. From the 16th Century rackets of various sizes and shapes were used. Tennis balls were made of leather, stuffed with hair or wool. The balls were hard enough to cause injury or even death.

The oldest tennis court in the world is one built by Henry VIII at Windsor Castle in 1529.

Other Surviving Games

Many of the other games we know today are descendant from medieval games: Horseshoes were derived from Quoits, Bocce is a form of Lawn Bowling coming from Italy. The French played a game Pelle Melle (or Pall Mall) with mallets and hard wooden balls, where wickets were set up by the players before the game in a more or less random arrangement for the opponents to pass their balls through to arrive at a goal stake at the end of the court, thus giving us the English term of “pell-mell” and the game of Croquet.

How to submit an Individual for a Baronial Award

By Kirsten Maria Matz

You want to do an amazingly helpful thing, make an award recommendation. The Crown and the Coronets cannot possibly keep track of all the wondrous things those of their populous are doing each and every minute. So, don't be afraid, they want you to submit those recommendations.

First things first, you've found that "oh so" deserving individual. The next very helpful thing is to determine if that person is a paid member. Awards can only be given to paid members. If they aren't, maybe it's time to convince them the usefulness of having a membership. After all, they get into events cheaper, right?

Membership requirements now aside, which award covers the deeds of this most noble individual? You can find this information out several ways. You can look on-line, both the Kingdom (<http://www.atenveldt.org/Heraldry/OverviewofKingdomofAtenveldtAwards.aspx#Kingdom>) and the Baronial (<http://www.baronyofatenveldt.org/awards.htm>) websites have descriptions of the different awards. You can also read the following pages, which cover a brief description of the Awards for the Barony of Atenveldt. Finally, you could always ask. There are many people who would be happy to help you sort it out, including their Excellencies, your local officers, or those not so rare SCAdian dinosaurs

Now, you know the person and the award you want to recommend them for. Submission of the award recommendation can be done in writing and mailed to the appropriate Crown or Coronet. By far the easiest thing to do though, is to fill out the on-line submission form. On the Barony of Atenveldt's website the submission form is directly below the different award descriptions, nice and easy. In either case, you will want the following information in the award recommendation submission:

For the individual being recommended:

Society Name
Modern Name
Member Number (if known)
Award Suggestion
Description of Why (be specific)

For the individual making the recommendation:

Society Name
Modern Name

Group
Telephone Number
Email Address

At this point, your job isn't quite done. It is sometimes helpful to have others submit a recommendation for the same person. This allows those in a position to give the award to have a better picture of the individual and how truly deserving they are. Finally, get the person to Court. If they never go to Court, they won't realize the fun they're missing, and will never get the award. This author has personally seen somebody get a three year past due award because they never came to court.

Award recommendations are no harder than that. Help your reigning Royalty and make those recommendations.

YIS,
Kirsten Matz, Baronial Chronicler

This Month's Word/Phrase is:
Starboard & Larboard

Submitted by:
Kirsten Matz

This month's word was originally going to be Port, inspired by a conversation I had with several people last weekend at Pilgrim's Progress, but upon research I found that the vague origin of the word Port is around mid 19th Century. That being said I began looking for the pre 19th Century word, which was larboard, and found the origin to Starboard.

Starboard supposedly started as the easier way to refer to the steering board side of the ship. Several sources agree that word started as the Anglo-Saxon word steorbord which was the name of the rudder off that side of the ship.

Larboard seems to have a varied origination depending on who you talk to. The best notion I found stated that in the Middle Ages the term larboard might be from the word laddebord, meaning 'loading side'. The ships would apparently use one side more than others for loading, so as not to damage the rudder. Briefly, port was not used until officially adopted by the Royal Navy in the 1800's and the most common rumor is that it was because it is easier to tell the difference between port and starboard, than larboard and starboard. During the conversation I had at Pilgrim's Progress it was given that Port came from the ships sailing South as that is the side Portugal is on, but I was unable, in my brief research to substantiate that claim.

A Kingdom A&S Announcement...

Greetings from THL Raven Mayne, Kingdom Arts and Sciences Minister,

I have a lot of exciting things to relay to you so here we go.....

The 2010 revision of the Kingdom A&S Competition Rules and FAQ are now available for viewing on the Kingdom A&S Webpage under Documents, along with all the now current updates for the competition itself. I took all constructive suggestions and productive feedback from last year's Kingdom A&S Competition and took some ideas of my own and strived to make everything better for everyone. If you are entering, or thinking about entering Kingdom A&S Competition I would ask that you please review all the rules.

I would also like to ask all that teach, or even thought that you would like to teach something, to please sign up for the next of Kingdom Collegium, happening in the Barony of Mons Tonitrus on June 12th and 13th. I have extended the deadline for teacher class submissions to May 12th, or until we are full. Please go to the Kingdom A&S Website, under Kingdom A&S Collegium, and fill out the easy online Teacher sign up form. Please do not send information for the classes you would like to teach any other way as with my experience with running Collegiums things might get lost in the shuffle if not submitted one specific way. I will add the Class Schedule and Class descriptions as soon as I can to the Kingdom A&S Website, and try to keep them up to date until the event.

Here is the direct link for teacher sign up:

<http://arts.atenveldt.org/ASEvents/AtenveldtKingdomCollegium/Collegium2010TeacherRegForm.aspx>

I have added Lodging and local restaurants to the Kingdom A&S Website for the area around the site of the Kingdom A&S Collegium.

Highlands War

Jun 3 – 7 2010

Mormon Lake Lodge

Highlands War XVI One year ago, an alliance led by House Inverted and the Wardogs caused a region of our fair lands to rebel and claim independent rule. Now we call upon all the troopers of the Emp... I mean Kingdom... to storm the ramparts of their rebel stronghold and help Us return these lands to Our loving care. They must learn that what can be seized by force can be re-taken by the same means at Highlands War XVI – The Northlands Strike Back. <http://highlands.atenveldt.org>

Site will open for general attendance on Thursday morning, June 3rd at 8:00 AM. Site will close at noon on Monday, June 7th, 2010. Pre Register by ACCEPS and save!

Adult SCA Member Pre Registration price $25.00

Directions to site: The Site for Highland War is the incomparable Mormon Lake approximately 40 miles south of Flagstaff, AZ on route SR 487 (aka Lake Mary Road) GPS is not recommended to find Mormon Lake Lodge, as there have been many people stranded by the bad roads these routes can take you on. Be forewarned: the most direct routes (and therefore GPS routes) often traverse unmaintained forest service roads! This route is NOT RECOMMENDED FOR LOW PROFILE CARS. For further directions see the website.

Please view the web site for updates, to Volunteer, battle scenarios, Arts and Sciences Competition rules, Hafla notes, and much, much more! <http://highlands.atenveldt.org> We look forward to your visit to the cooler northern Highlands of Atenveldt!
