Greetings from the Coronet

Greetings to all who read these words.

Baron Edward and Baroness Annalies send warmest greetings. Things are warming up in the Great Barony of Atenveldt. Edward had a great time at Highlands and Kingdom A&S Collegium. Congratulations to Lord Heinrich Loescher and Lady Juliana la Caminante de Navarra who were chosen by the crown after a polling of the populace to be the next Baron and Baroness of the March of Mons Tonitrus.

Wednesday night Fighter practices have been going well. We are ever looking for a site that would be willing to commit to a long term agreement, that we can afford. In the mean time, we have secured Encanto Park for the Fall. We look forward to seeing everyone at War Collegium on July 10-11, 2010. Wednesday, July 14, 2010 will be a Melee practice, we will take the field at or before 8pm. (We think drumming may start about 7:30) Please start working on your letters of intent for crown tournament and your projects for the A&S competition.

From Battlemoor,

Edward

Baron

Annalies

Baroness

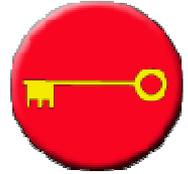

From the Seneschal

His Excellency Edward decreed that all officers need to send a report to the Baronial Seneschal every month regardless of whether they report to Kingdom monthly or quarterly. These reports are due by the first of every month. I cannot except verbal reports because I have to keep them on file. I can get them at the park or online at seneschal@baronyofatenveldt.org. His Excellency and I will be keeping track of this. If you do not have a copy of your warrant, please come see me, will be taking care of getting copies of warrants over the next few weeks. Likewise, ending dates on warrants now have to be published in the Palm Prints and on the web. So, all officers that have not already done so need to fill out a release of contact information form with the Chronicler's office. This covers changes in Kingdom Law.

Thank you for your patients and understanding
Jean Andre' Boeye'
Seneschal

Quick Announcement

This month's Business Meeting has been moved to Tuesday July 6 and should take place at the Armadilla Grill located at 1904 E Camelback Rd, Phoenix, AZ. The time remains the same, 7:30-8:30 pm. Watch the list for any further updates.

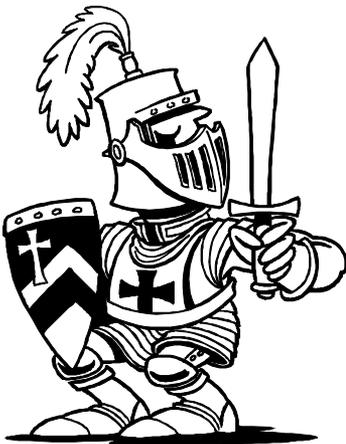

From our Parks Liaison

New Baronial Wednesday Practice Site This Fall and Winter

It gives me great pleasure to announce on behalf of their Excellencies Edward and Annalise, Baron and Baroness of Atenveldt, successful completion of arrangements with the Phoenix Parks Department to hold Baronial fighter practices Wednesday nights this fall and winter (through the week before Estrella) on the ballfield at Encanto Park. A contract has been signed for lights and use of the field on all those Wednesdays, the weeks before Thanksgiving and Christmas excepted.

Note that this is not a permanent arrangement for use of this particular park. The deal we just signed is about as long-term as current Parks policy allows for. We continue to pursue options for an affordable longer-term practice site arrangement. Where we practice after Estrella will depend, among other things, on park availability (city-recognized sports leagues will continue to have first priority for Parks Department sports fields, as has been the citywide policy for several years) and also on how smoothly this sojourn at Encanto goes. (I'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who's helped our practices at the current park go so well - I believe that the general lack of problems, the growing number of people coming out and obviously enjoying themselves, and the positive response from the local community are all factors in the increased options available to us in this latest negotiation - Harry.)

Baronial fighter practices remain scheduled for Wednesdays 7-10 pm at Barrios Unidos Park for the summer, through the last date on that contract, Wednesday August 25th. Wednesday September 1st (the week before Crown Tournery) is thus far an open date for us, since Encanto currently has maintenance scheduled for that date. We will pursue arrangements for that night with Encanto, with Barrios, or at a third site, and announce the site as soon as we have it pinned down.

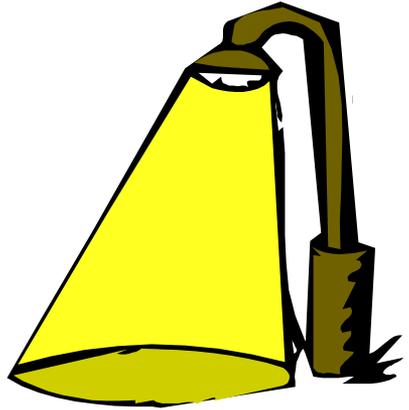

If you have questions, suggestions, or possibilities for affordable FP sites we might make a long-term deal for (so I'm out of a job!), I'm the immediate one to ask. Meanwhile, come on by Wednesday evenings and join us! Fighter Practice is not just for hardsuiters; on recent Wednesdays I've also been seeing the practice of rapier, drumming and dancing, bardic, garb, heraldry and display, and lots of people just plain hanging out and catching up with their friends on a fine summer evening.

In conclusion, a message from Their Excellencies Edward and Annalise: "Tell all of your friends of the good times that are to be had at our Wednesday night gatherings. If you have not been out for a while, you should come see what you have been missing, and share your talents and good times."

P.S. Some boring technical details on field hours, lights, and costs to the Barony (yes, you can help!)

Current Parks Department citywide policy is to book lighted sports field time in two-hour blocks, 6-8 pm and 8-10 pm, no partial blocks. The price can vary; currently it's $15/hour for lights at both Barrios Unidos and Encanto. Payment for lights is due in full at contract signing. The Barony has just signed up and paid for the 8-10 pm lighted field block for 21 Wednesdays at Encanto through this fall and winter. We think 8-10 pm lights should suffice through the early fall, when it's still too hot out to take the field and fight much before eight anyway.

Another aspect of Parks lighted field policies to be aware of is that contracting for lighted field time reserves the field. Absent that, Parks sports field access is on a first-come first-served basis. Our current contract at Barrios Unidos is similar to next fall's contract in this regard; both have the Barony paying for lights 8-10 pm. This means that on nights when another group books the 6-8pm slot (as with the youth soccer league the other night at Barrios) we need to stay on the sidelines till 8 when the field is ours, then coordinate with the other group to take the field promptly.

Later in the fall, when the sun and temperature go down earlier (and War is closer) it would be very good to have the lighted field earlier. Unfortunately, paying for lights starting at 7 pm is not an option. We'll need to book, and pay for, lump-sum cash in advance, the entire 6-8pm block for all the dates we want. (Parks understandably doesn't want to be left with short partial time blocks that nobody else can use.)

My understanding is that populace support for the expense involved would greatly ease the decision to book the additional lighted field hours later this fall. My observation is that the sooner we can move on this, the more likely it is that the additional time blocks we want will still be available. People wishing to pledge donations for this purpose can contact me, or the Baron, or the Seneschal, or make donations to the Baronial Exchequer directly.

From the Baronial Web Minister

Good people of Atenveldt,

Greetings and well met from your new Web Minister. Many great things do I have in store for the Barony's online presence. A new domain name in addition to the old. A new website. New content. Lots of stuff! The bulk of these changes will be taking effect over the course of the next week.

First of all, even though we within the barony do not have an issue spelling the name of our site, BaronyofAtenveldt.org, trying to get others to type that into a search bar can be... painful. So in addition to the old site name, you may now also use the shorter and easier to spell site name, TheBofA.org. Tell your friends! Tell your enemies! Heck, tell the birds and the bees, just tell it to someone!

Secondly, the website is getting an overhaul. Not a little one either. We're talking about a major, Rome is taking over, kind of overhaul. The site is getting a calendar for event and practice planning as well as a live feed from the Baronial Yahoo! list not to mention a feed from the SCAToday.net. Armed Combat and A&S will each be getting their own sections on the website and articles and tutorials will be added on a regular basis.

So come on down to the new site and tell me what you think! Any comments, recommendations, or suggestions are welcome. Unless their cranky, then keep them to yourself.

Yours in Service,
Lord Heinrich der Brauer

Greetings From Your Baronial Chronicler

The Very First Book of Days Cover Competition

We are looking for an original piece of artwork based on any period piece of artwork. We only ask that you include somewhere in the design the Baronial heraldry, both the flaming laurel wreath & the populous badge, the twin palms. Calligraphy is optional, you may include the title “The Barony of Atenveldt’s Book of Days 2011”, or we can add it later. Artwork not chosen for the cover may still be used elsewhere in the calendar. Artwork for this competition or submissions for inside the Book of Days, as well as questions & suggestions may be emailed to me at the address below or see me at practice, before September 15. All works will require a signed release which can be obtained in the files section of the Baronial newsgroup, by emailing me, or in person at practice. I will be contributing a $20 gift certificate to Arizona Art Supply for the winner of this competition.

Announcement Concerning the College of Bards

OK, I'm officially closing the announcements of interest for the Dean of the College of Bards and now I am opening it up for the Voting. So please feel free to Cross post this and make announcements to all the Bards of Atenveldt so they know about it to vote. Since this is the first actual ELECTION we've had thusfar for the Dean, I'm sort of making things up as I go trying to keep it fair to all bards to have their voices heard.

I will accept votes at wuuga @ yahoo.com, just mention the College of Bards in the subject line to make sure I see it. Votes will be accepted until July 15th. I will also be accepting personally delivered votes at the July Barony of Atenveldt Bardic Circle (Second Wednesday of every month at Barrios Unidos Park along with the Barony of Atenveldt Fighter practice) Please only vote ONCE. I believe we're all honorable and chivalrous enough to abide ourselves in this. As the current Dean and the one collecting the votes, I myself will NOT be voting for ANY candidate unless there is a tie between two on July 15th. Then and only then will I cast a vote to break the tie.

In addition, I want to add a bit of tradition to the post. Lady Eleanor Cleavelly founded the College of Bard and gave to my keeping the beautiful scroll with the charter. I'll be passing that along to the new Dean, but in addition, I'll be adding my own bit of regalia as I am currently working on a "chain of office" necklace to help identify the Dean. I hope that whomever succeeds me will continue on this tradition, passing along not only what regalia they receive from me, but also adding something of their own to it.

Alright, I've rattled on long enough, now to introduce you to your candidates!! Listed in no particular order:

 Patrick the butcher

I am very interested in the deans position of the CoB. I have both the time and the desire to take the college to the next level. since I have no current responsibilities that would interfere with my attention to the post, I think I am a good candidate for this job. I am willing to hold monthly meetings, and to teach the bardic arts whenever possible. Please put me in for consideration for this position.

I am centrally located in the valley of the sun, I have 20 years experience entertaining in the SCA, 6 years experience at organizing and running bardic circles, I teach and perform, I am the Chieftain and founder of the Red Hands Tribe, current Bard of the Highlands, former Bardic Champion of Ered Sul, AoA, CoFS, CoSA, BMF, and all round cool guy. oh and I have a huge, er, songbook.

 Lord Michael Sinestro

Former Bardic Champion of the Barony of Atenveldt, founder of the Barony of Atenveldt Bardic Circle, Multiple time Kingdom A&S competition winner, Author of the Sinestro Songbooks volumes 1-3 Resident of the Barony of Atenveldt

 Sayyida 'Ijiliah bint Rashid called Inara

I would like to put my hat in the running for Dean of the College of Bards. I have been the Bard of the Sun and am currently in charge of running the Tir Ysgithr monthly bardic circles that we have been having for the last 4 months now which have been very successful. I am very encouraging and have been told by multiple people that I have helped to begin their bardic careers. Thank you for the consideration. Been playing in the SCA since October 2005. Apprenticed to Mistress Dairine. My focus arts-wise is medieval performance/music so that's what I do a majority of my research on. Reside in Tir Ysgithr, always have. Love cookies, butterflies and rainbows :o)

 Thome Spyle Syngere

I'm located in Phoenix (Avondale)...just down the street from the ol' Estrella War site (a pity). I have been a member of the SCA for 15 years, am proud to be a former Atenveldt Baronial Bardic Champion and have hosted many Baronial Bardic events including the Estrella War Olde Worlde Bardic Challenge. Many of you may know me as "Spellsinger". In my mundane life I have been a music and band teacher (all levels) for 32 years...currently teaching band, strings and steel drums at Alta Vista Elementary School in Phoenix.

This Month's Word/Phrase is: Collegium

“In Roman law a collegium was a body of persons associated for a common function. The name was used by many medieval institutions—from guilds to the body that elected the Holy Roman emperor. “¹ or “A group whose members pursue shared goals while working within a framework of mutual trust and respect: “²

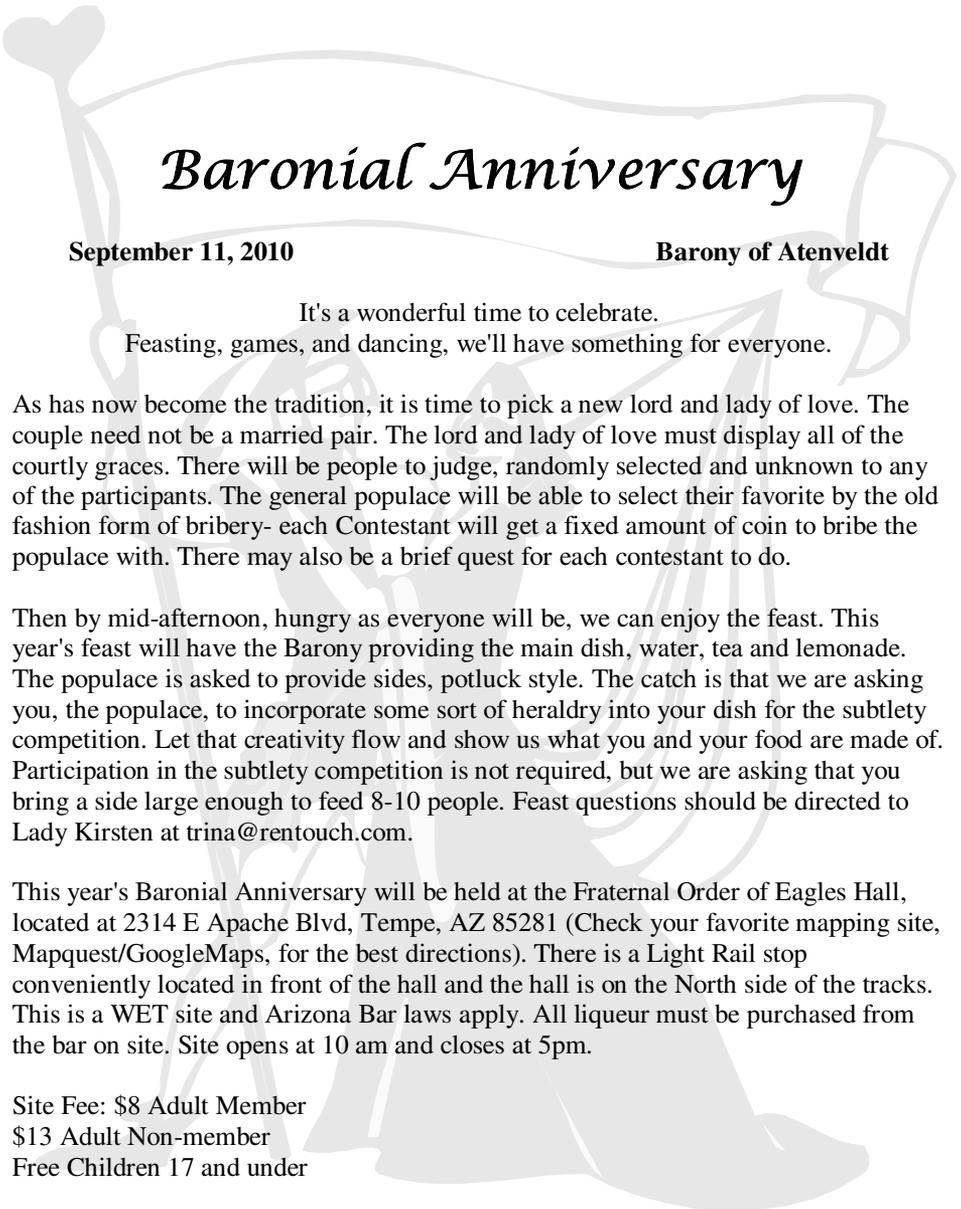

Collegiums can be found in Ancient Rome and Greece , where many times they were governed by their own conventions, as long as they followed local law. This allowed for the collegium to continue even if the original members changed.³ There are references for collegiums being synonymous with guilds or corporations, “corporatio”, but not all.⁴

Baronial Anniversary

September 11, 2010

Barony of Atenveldt

It's a wonderful time to celebrate.
Feasting, games, and dancing, we'll have something for everyone.

As has now become the tradition, it is time to pick a new lord and lady of love. The couple need not be a married pair. The lord and lady of love must display all of the courtly graces. There will be people to judge, randomly selected and unknown to any of the participants. The general populace will be able to select their favorite by the old fashion form of bribery- each Contestant will get a fixed amount of coin to bribe the populace with. There may also be a brief quest for each contestant to do.

Then by mid-afternoon, hungry as everyone will be, we can enjoy the feast. This year's feast will have the Barony providing the main dish, water, tea and lemonade. The populace is asked to provide sides, potluck style. The catch is that we are asking you, the populace, to incorporate some sort of heraldry into your dish for the subtlety competition. Let that creativity flow and show us what you and your food are made of. Participation in the subtlety competition is not required, but we are asking that you bring a side large enough to feed 8-10 people. Feast questions should be directed to Lady Kirsten at trina@rentouch.com.

This year's Baronial Anniversary will be held at the Fraternal Order of Eagles Hall, located at 2314 E Apache Blvd, Tempe, AZ 85281 (Check your favorite mapping site, Mapquest/GoogleMaps, for the best directions). There is a Light Rail stop conveniently located in front of the hall and the hall is on the North side of the tracks. This is a WET site and Arizona Bar laws apply. All liqueur must be purchased from the bar on site. Site opens at 10 am and closes at 5pm.

BARONIAL WANT ADS

-Ministry of the Lists-

This brave individual must be willing to run all aspects of a tournament list. From bullying people into signing in for a tournament, with their fighters' cards, to working with the vocal herald during the tournament, and finally to the organized end of declaring the victor. Interested persons should contact their Excellencies or the Seneschal.

-Deputies for all Major Offices-

"Many hands make work light," and every office in the Barony could use a deputy. It is also a great way to learn about a position before taking the job yourself.

-Waiver Secretary-

This job entails keeping track of which warranted fighters are fighting at the weekly fighter practice and getting waivers signed by those that must sign each week.

-Chancellor of the Youth-

Wanted to provide diversions at events, coordinate smalls, and have an all around "cheery disposition".

-Keeper of the Ropes-

This individual should be able to set-up, tear-down, transport and store the ropes for the Barony's weekly fighter practice.

Find out how you can become an officer today.

If you wish to submit your letter of intent, or have any questions regarding any of the offices, please send deputy inquires to the appropriate office (contact information listed in the front of this issue), all other inquiries may be sent to:

Kingdom Sheriff's Announcement

Greeting to the populace of Atenveldt,

It as come to the attention of the office of the Sheriff that there has been an increase in thefts at Events in other Kingdoms.

It saddens me that in these uncertain and for many rough economic times, that opportunists and miscreants among us would take advantage of our trust in one another to steal. Be assured that in Atenveldt that the Sheriffs of our Kingdom have routines and standards in place to ward against such activity. But it does not make us immune by any means.

I will be working with our Baronial Sheriffs and our Baronial and Shire Seneschals to strengthen our standards at events. But we have never done this alone. It has always been with your help that we have kept your private property and group regalia secure.

I feel some extra vigilance is called for under the circumstances. So what can you do? Here are some suggestions:

- At camping events keep your camp orderly. Do not leave a lot of stuff just laying around and know where your things are and keep them in safe places.
- Be polite, ask before you enter or walk thru someone's camp so they know you are there (it is our tradition).
- Look out for strangers hanging out around your camp or the site exhibiting strange or uncharacteristic SCA behavior. Let the Watch know.
- If you think something is missing report it immediately to Watch point. If you find it later we will just take it off our list(let us know you found it).
- Make sure that your vehicles, trailers and flatbeds are locked down. Include hitch locks so that trailers do not get driven off site.
- Groups, have an updated inventory list of your regalia and what you are taking to events. Make sure its all there before you leave site. If anything is missing report it to the Watch immediately.

Last and very important to me. Help us keep us all keep safe by volunteering a few hours of your time to work the Watch. As you know we are always under staffed.

Many of you will say upon reading this, "I know this stuff". Yes and many of us have become way too casual about it, and now is the time to be more vigilant. So, have fun, be safe and please help.

Acting Kingdom Sheriff
