Greetings from the Coronet

Greetings to the wonderful Populace of the Barony of Atenveldt,

This April has been a great month. The weather has remained friendly and allowed for some great Wednesday night gatherings. We were very pleased with the Honor and Chivalry displayed at the Novice Tourney, and congratulations to our winners and their consorts. We want to thank those who came out and supported the tourney. We had guests from the south, ambiance from some of our drummers, and great prizes (a leather book and some rattan) donated by our populace. We also want to thank the members of the Chivalry who came out and handled every mechanical aspect of the tourney except the list and some heralding.

The next several weeks will be very busy and we look forward to seeing many of you at the upcoming events. First, Coronation is upon us and we hope you will join us in celebrating our new King and Queen. We of course will see you at Pilgrim's Progress on the 22nd and 23rd of May. The Champions in the pines event and Highlands will undoubtedly be a great time, and I know that some of you will be going to Potrero and Kingdom A&S Collegium. Then it is off to Battlemoor and then back home for War Collegium.

Remember, Her Excellency so believes in her populace that she has thrown the gauntlet, and it did smack her cousin square in the face. She has wagered a great price, that our populace will prove to the Kingdom that we do indeed have the BEST artisans. His Excellency Christopher did accept the challenge of an ART OFF and we wish to know how we can support each and every one of you in entering the Kingdom A&S competition.

No more unto you at this time. May you continue in good health and good spirits.

Edward

Baron

Annalies

BARONIAL WANT ADS

-Baronial Exchequer- -& Emergency Deputy Exchequer-

This is a two-year warranted position. The Baronial Exchequer reports to the Kingdom Exchequer, and is in charge of all financial activities for Baronial accounts. The Baronial Exchequer compiles financial information & reports to the Baronial Financial Committee. The position requires an ability to tactfully work with Baronial Officers and members of the populace; an understanding of the implementation of SCA financial guidelines in the Society Financial Policy, Baronial Law and Baronial financial policy; strong writing and organizational skills; word processing and email skills; and a computer and printer with Internet access (most communication is via email). Prior experience as a Exchequer or Officer for a Local group is very helpful, as is real-world management and personnel experience.

Applications should include an SCA resume, and an outline of applicable real world experience.

Send copies to: the Acing Exchequer of the Barony of Atenveldt
<exchequer@baronyofatenveldt.org>.

In addition, a filled out Warrant of Appointment to Financial Office Form (found on the www.sca.org website at <http://www.sca.org/docs>), and the documents requested by that form, (picture ID and proof of membership), must also be sent to the Kingdom of Atenveldt Exchequer.

-Deputies for all Major Offices-

“Many hands make work light,” and every office in the Barony could use a deputy. It is also a great way to learn about a position before taking the job yourself.

-Baronial A&S Minister-

The Office of Minister of Arts and Sciences is responsible for fostering the study of period culture and technology, and methods for producing historically accurate artifacts and performances. His/her duties include promoting the dissemination of accurate information about the fields under study. It is also the responsibility of the Minister of Arts and Sciences to help organize demonstrations, exhibitions, competitions, classes, workshops or deputies can do this. By all means do not feel you have to take on this job without help.

Every local A & S Officer must submit monthly reports summarizing the activities of the local group and local members. Being accessible to the Barony and keeping the populace educated about what is happening both locally and at the Kingdom level is a vital part of the job. Another important part of an A & S Officers' duty is communication with artisans so that each gets the help and recognition that is needed. The A & S Officer is responsible for promoting all aspects of the Arts and Sciences including period-inspired creativity, scholarly research or authentic research. Anyone who shows an interest in the arts and sciences should be encouraged through competitions, displays, teaching or performing, to name a few. The A & S Officer should also help at Kingdom A & S events and Collegiums whenever possible and actively recruit participants and teachers.

-Web Minister-

The Barony is seeking a new Web Minister. Qualified Candidates must have a working knowledge of HTML, available to keep the website content current and comfortable working with Baronial Officers.

-Waiver Secretary-

This job entails keeping track of which warranted fighters are fighting at the weekly fighter practice and getting waivers signed by those that must sign each week.

-Chancellor of the Youth-

Wanted to provide diversions at events, coordinate smalls, and have an all around "cheery disposition".

Autocrats Needed

Bids for the December 11 event are due by June 1.

This is an excellent opportunity for a new autocrat to try their hand, a tourney planner to run that "something different", or for anyone who may be getting more active after some time off. If you have questions about this chance to make your vision come alive, contact the seneschal, Rhys or Their Excellencies.

A Missive from your Bardic Champion

First, my apologies for not having written in the past couple of months. Estrella took up a lot of my time, and then I was working on getting a manuscript published in The Compleat Anachronist. Part I of the CA manuscript is now out, with Part II in the hands of the editor and scheduled to be out in July.

As for Estrella, the Wednesday night bardic circle at the Ered Sul encampment went very well, as did the Olde Worlde Bardic Competition on Friday night - there were 22 performances at the competition! My thanks to all who performed, judged, and helped out, and to their Excellencies for making so much of this happen.

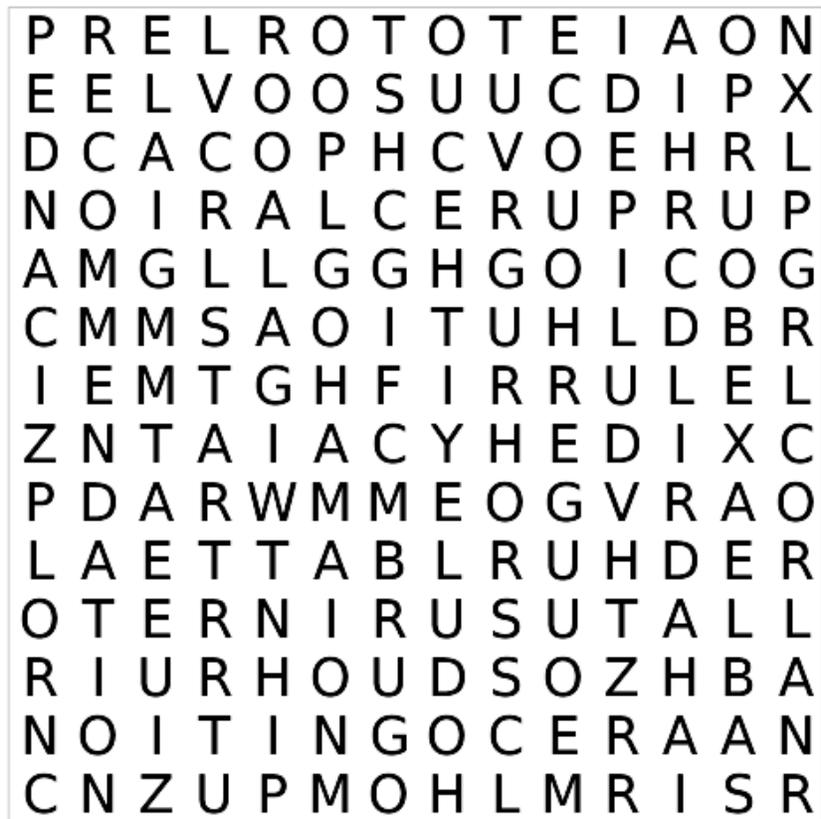

Remember the Bard of the Sun competition at coronation on May 1st. This is tentatively scheduled for Saturday evening. I hope we have at least as good a turnout of competitors from our barony as we had last time.

Wednesday, May 12th, will be the 5th anniversary of our Wednesday night bardic circle (actually I started it in March of 2005, but May 2005 was the first one that people showed up for).

Lord Michael Sinestro
Bardic Champion of the Barony of Atenveldt

Pilgrims and their Journeys

By Maestra Camilla Hazelwood

The word “pilgrim” comes from the Latin word “pelegrinus”, meaning “stranger”.

Pilgrimages were common during the middle ages throughout Europe. They were often undertaken by the faithful in order to demonstrate piety to God. Also, they had the added benefit of being places that were said to be more conducive to and effective for praying. The holiest of pilgrimage site was Jerusalem, followed closely by Rome.

Santiago de Compostela was another highly popular pilgrimage destination. A certain style of clam shell was sold by the church as a keepsake of the journey; pilgrims would pin or sew these to their hat or clothes (or sometimes create books for them). Thus began the tradition of pilgrim badges. Soon most churches that wanted to be considered pilgrimage sites followed suit and you could buy a specialized keepsake at many churches throughout Europe.

Pilgrimage sites generally boasted miracles or healing and usually had some sort of holy relic on display, such as the Shroud of Turin. There were so many sites that claimed to have a piece of “the true cross” that if they were all put together there would have been enough for several crosses.

Towns that had such sites benefited economically: pilgrims bought supplies and needed lodging. These places became thriving market towns. Churches did what they could to promote their own church as a destination; new cathedrals were built to attract tourist, they insulted other pilgrimage sites and they became the first to send out mailings to potential patrons.

A pilgrimage was also an adventure for many people. It was often the farthest they might ever travel outside of their own villages. Even though the trips could be dangerous, it was believed that if you died on a pilgrimage you were more likely to be admitted into heaven.

The origins of the pilgrim's uniform are unknown. Much can be explained by the practical considerations of medieval travel and the need to distinguish yourself clearly as a pilgrim.

The staff and scrip were the earliest parts of the uniform, and both are very practical. The staff had to be made of strong wood, preferably with a metal tip. Apart from its obvious use to someone walking hundreds of kilometers, the staff could be an important means of self defense against wolves or human attackers.

The scrip was a soft pouch, usually made of leather and tied to the pilgrim's waist. The scrip was used to store all the essential belongings: food, money, documents etc. The long tunic or sclavein became part of the pilgrim uniform in the 11th century at the same time as the priests began to bless the pilgrim's clothes.

In the later Middle Ages the uniform became more elaborate. After the find of the suit of a pilgrim, worn by pilgrim from Nürnberg during his trip to Jerusalem 1595, we have been able to establish how the uniform of a pilgrim may have looked. They travelled in long (often blue) robes which served as coats and sleeping bags and wore a wide-brimmed hat. They would also carry some sort of bag or sack, often a book bag, carrying with them some sort of religious book.

Our illustrious Baroness wishes that we participate as a Barony in this competition. We must defend our honor against our Ered Sul cousins.

As we progress through the year, we are looking for pictures & artwork for the Baronial Book of Days. If there is an event you've taken pictures at we would love for you to share those pictures with the Barony. We are also announcing:

The Very First Book of Days Cover Competition

We are looking for an original piece of artwork based on any period piece of artwork. We only ask that you include somewhere in the design the Baronial heraldry, both the flaming laurel wreath & the populous badge of the twin palms. Calligraphy is optional, you may include the title "The Barony of Atenveldt's Book of Days 2011", or we can add it later. Artwork not chosen for the cover may still be used elsewhere in the calendar. Please send artwork for this competition or submissions for inside the Book of Days, as well as questions & suggestions to chronicler@baronyofatenveldt.org or see me at practice, before September 15. The prize for the competition is still to be determined.

In addition to artwork & photos, we are looking for historical references for holidays & seasons. Let's make the Book of Days something we can all be proud of.

Mormon Lake Lodge

Highlands War XVI One year ago, an alliance led by House Inverted and the Wardogs caused a region of our fair lands to rebel and claim independent rule. Now we call upon all the troopers of the Emp... I mean Kingdom... to storm the ramparts of their rebel stronghold and help Us return these lands to Our loving care. They must learn that what can be seized by force can be re-taken by the same means at Highlands War XVI – The Northlands Strike Back. <http://highlands.atenveldt.org> will close at noon on Monday, June 7th, 2010. Pre Register by ACCEPS and save!

Adult SCA Member Pre Registration price $25.00

Directions to site: The Site for Highland War is the incomparable Mormon Lake approximately 40 miles south of Flagstaff, AZ on route SR 487 (aka Lake Mary Road) GPS is not recommended to find Mormon Lake Lodge, as there have been many people stranded by the bad roads these routes can take you on.
