Words from Their Excellency's

Salutations!

We hope that now that Estrella War XXX is a month behind us, all have recovered completely and were able to free themselves from this year's mud. We are already looking forward to next year.

What a busy time this is in our kingdom. Since war, we have witnessed the Investiture of both Sim and Magdalen in The Barony of Tir Ysght and Gwen and Simon in The Barony of Sundragon. We look forward to building strong relationships with Our new cousins.

We would like to thank all that come to fighter practice and support the barony's fighters as well as the A&S and Youth communities. We are seeing many new faces and even a few that have been greatly missed.

On April 5th, We will be relaxing in the shade at Hollis Park for Springen Flingen. We have been informed that there may be shenanigans afoot.

In Ered Sul, on April 13th, We will be supporting Our cousins in finding their successors by attending their polling. Another new set of cousins, they seem to be dropping like flies.

Wednesday! Wednesday! Wednesday! Wednesday the 23rd brings the 14th Barony of Atenveldt Novice Tourney. This is one of Our favorite events. The pageantry and chivalry to be witnessed at this tourney leaves Us in awe.

On May 3rd, We shall travel to the Shire of Grandholme to witness the stepping down of TRM Morgan and Livia and the coronation of TRH Craven and Elzbieta. We encourage everyone that is able to attend as the site is lovely.

There are many aspects of service when you are the coronet of a barony. One of the many important things that must be taken care of involves largess. Largess can be anything from gift baskets for stepping down/up crowns and coronets to prizes for tournaments. We have been truly fortunate to have Lady Avelene who has provided every basket and all of the belt favors for the Novice Tourney since before our stepping up. As one can imagine, this is a lot of work and can become costly as the baskets and prizes cannot be covered by the baronial coffers. We ask that if you are able to, please donate items that can be used for the gift baskets and prizes for the tournaments. We have an especially difficult time finding prizes for the male tournament winners. If you'd like to donate, or have a question, please contact HE Elena. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Forever Inspired by the Gracious Populace of The Barony of Atenveldt,

Baron Seelos & Baroness Elena

15th Coronet of The Barony of Atenveldt

Premier Barony of The Society

Another war has come and gone.
Friendships made, competitions won.

Many gathered to put up Big Red.
Huzzah for it not falling on someone's head.

The B&B Dinner was over the top.
Food and drink seemed to never stop.

The NoviceTourney with honor fought.
Fighters and Consorts, beauty they brought.

Grand Circle with the Thunder Clans.
Weather ruined best laid plans.

Many lovely gifts given with such graces.
Awards bestowed upon surprised faces.

Ladies-in-Waiting and Guardsmen ever vigilant.
Regalia and camp stewards ever diligent.

Many merchants wares in the square of the town.
Thank the Universe, no one drowned.

Here are the Requirements Taken from the Chirurgeon's Handbook: The Chirurgeonate is the volunteer first-aid organization of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., a non-profit educational organization devoted to the study of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. It is part of the "living history" movement, where members try to reproduce various aspects of the culture and technology of their period, as well as pursuing more traditional historical research. The SCA sponsors events such as medieval tournaments and feasts, where members dress in Medieval and Renaissance styles, and participate in activities based on the civil and martial arts of the Middle Ages. We use the medieval term "Chirurgeon" instead of "first aider," "first responder," or "medic" in our efforts to maintain a medieval atmosphere at SCA events. We also use the Medieval bloodletting device, the fleam, as the symbol of the Chirurgeonate instead of the modern red short armed cross whose use is restricted by international treaty to organizations affiliated with the International Red Cross and the military.

The members of the Chirurgeonate include Red Cross-trained first aiders, medical doctors, military medical corpsmen, nurses, paramedics, St. John's and St. Andrew's ambulance volunteers, and many other medical volunteers and professionals. We come from all walks of life and from many countries around the globe. We are united as members of the Chirurgeonate for one purpose: to provide first aid at SCA events.

The members of the Chirurgeonate provide first aid on a volunteer basis at SCA events. First aid performed in the SCA is Good Samaritan in nature, and is provided to anyone who asks at no cost to the recipient. This has been our tradition ever since Bjo of Griffin, arguably the first-known Chirurgeon, started bringing her first-aid kit to SCA events, back in the days when there was but a single Kingdom. If you are interested in the Office as the Deputy Chirurgeon please contact the Seneschal and their Excellencies with a letter of intent detailing your experience and the role you wish to assume.
