Words from Their Excellency's

Greetings to the Good Gentlefolk of The Barony of Atenveldt,

Summer has arrived and the search for lighter garb for events is a must. Let us not forget to always have water and keep hydrated.

Saturday, April 13th Her Excellency traversed to the land of the wooly to attend The Barony of Ered Sul's polling. What a difficult time their populace must have had in making a choice as there were many fine gentles in the running. A choice was made The Crown announced Sir Angus and & Lady Katarina as the next Baron & Baroness of Ered Sul. Their Investiture will be at BES' birthday event, Too Hot, the weekend of July 11th through the 13th. We look forward to getting to know Our new cousins better.

The evening of April 23rd proved itself perfect with beautiful weather and the always awe inspiring Novice Tournament. This tournament is one of Our favorite things about being Baron & Baroness. The honour, chivalry and prowess shown by Our non-belted fighters and their consorts brings its own brand of stardust.

May 3rd and 4th brought about the stepping down of Duke Morgan & Duchess Livia and the Coronation of TRM Craven & Elzbieta and Their 5th reign. What a lovely time of laughter and friendship.

Kingdom A&S Collegium was held this year on Saturday, May 31st and Sunday June 1st. Once again, Lady Trina and her staff raised the bar as to what a collegium should be. There were so many teachers and so many classes offered that even Her Majesty Elzbieta stated that She could not attend all the classes that She wanted to.

Summer of 2014 will bring a new change to The Barony of Atenveldt fighter practice schedule. From June 10th through August 26th, fighter practice will be held on Tuesday nights at Encanto Park. We would like to thank Lord Harry Rudkin for his efforts to keep us at Encanto.

Forever Inspired by the Gracious Populace of The Barony of Atenveldt,

Baron Seelos & Baroness Elena

15th Coronet of The Barony of Atenveldt

Premier Barony of The Society

P.S. There are many aspects of service when you are the coronet of a barony. One of the many important things that must be taken care of involves largess. Largess can be anything from gift baskets for stepping down/up crowns and coronets to prizes for tournaments. We have been truly fortunate to have Lady Avelene who has provided every basket and all of the belt favors for the Novice Tourney since before our stepping up. As one can imagine, this is a lot of work and can become costly as the baskets and prizes cannot be covered by the baronial coffers. We ask that if you are able to, please donate items that can be used for the gift baskets and prizes for the tournaments. We have an especially difficult time finding prizes for the male tournament winners. If you'd like to donate, or have a question, please contact HE Elena. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

The hot Atenveldt sun sits high in the sky at the height of its glory. Thirst and hunger threaten to overwhelm you as you travel through the scorching sands in search of respite. A shady oasis appears in the distance, cool and inviting. You fear the heat has gone to your head and this is only a mirage, a trick of the desert. You trudge closer, hoping against hope when the low rumble of drums drifts out to draw you in. Your mind is further put to ease when the succulent aromas of a feast in full swing surround you. A few more steps and you are welcomed to the shade by friends and drink, by fragrant hookah smoke and dazzling dancers, by merchants with exotic wears and food aplenty. Come; join us in the cool Twin Moons' Oasis for Middle East Feast!

Settle amongst the pillows to enjoy a wondrous feast inspired by a blending of culture including assorted fresh fruit, Harira (lentil and lamb soup) Golden Rice, Tomato & Cucumber Salad with lemon mint dressing, Jaj ma'a Hashwa (lemon braised chicken & pine nuts), lemon yogurt and sesame cake for desert. All of the recipes for this meal have been graciously provided by Duke Sir Ibrahim al-Dimashqi of the Outlands. Feast space is limited and available through ACCEPS only. Turkish coffee will be available, and donations are requested to help offset the cost of this favored beverage. The hotel also has a restaurant with American cuisine available for those who do not favor Middle Eastern cuisine. No outside food or beverages are allowed at the event.

We encourage you to bring your own carpets and pillows as to fully immerse yourself into a day of lounging and comfort. The event hall does have limited space, so larger items will need to stay behind as the space will not accommodate larger items well. Take a stroll through the Bazaar where merchants will be peddling their wares. Once again we are pleased to offer on-site henna application as well. A silent auction will be held to benefit the general fund of the Barony. For those who wish to partake, hookah smoking will be allowed on the patio.

Here are the Requirements Taken from the Chirurgeon's Handbook: The Chirurgeonate is the volunteer first-aid organization of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., a non-profit educational organization devoted to the study of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. It is part of the "living history" movement, where members try to reproduce various aspects of the culture and technology of their period, as well as pursuing more traditional historical research. The SCA sponsors events such as medieval tournaments and feasts, where members dress in Medieval and Renaissance styles, and participate in activities based on the civil and martial arts of the Middle Ages. We use the medieval term "Chirurgeon" instead of "first aider," "first responder," or "medic" in our efforts to maintain a medieval atmosphere at SCA events. We also use the Medieval bloodletting device, the fleam, as the symbol of the Chirurgeonate instead of the modern red short armed cross whose use is restricted by international treaty to organizations affiliated with the International Red Cross and the military.

The members of the Chirurgeonate include Red Cross-trained first aiders, medical doctors, military medical corpsmen, nurses, paramedics, St. John's and St. Andrew's ambulance volunteers, and many other medical volunteers and professionals. We come from all walks of life and from many countries around the globe. We are united as members of the Chirurgeonate for one purpose: to provide first aid at SCA events.

The members of the Chirurgeonate provide first aid on a volunteer basis at SCA events. First aid performed in the SCA is Good Samaritan in nature, and is provided to anyone who asks at no cost to the recipient. This has been our tradition ever since Bjo of Griffin, arguably the first-known Chirurgeon, started bringing her first-aid kit to SCA events, back in the days when there was but a single Kingdom. If you are interested in the Office as the Deputy Chirurgeon please contact the Seneschal and their Excellencies with a letter of intent detailing your experience and the role you wish to assume.

The official source for all officer and deputy openings is the Seneschals office. If you have any questions about this list, any officer or deputy position or duties please contact the Seneschals office or the Baron and Baroness.
