Words from Their Excellencies

Happy and Gleeful New Year!

We hope that everyone found peace, joy and time to spend with your loved ones during the holidays. What an outstanding Yule we had on the 9th of December. Santa took a break from his busy Christmas schedule to attend, see the children and take pictures with the kids of all ages. Our very own HL Nikolas von Erlach was asked to contemplate his acceptance into the Order of the Pelican. We hope to hear his answer at Estrella War. Speaking of Estrella War, we hope to see many of you out there and celebrating this wondrous Kingdom!

Make sure you take a look at the gate book and see what classes are being offered. Remember that Wednesday is the baronies day to volunteer and do our part! Please donate an hour or 2 of your time to watch, it would be greatly appreciated. We look forward to celebrating “family” with our baronial slumber party in Big Red on Wednesday night! JOIN US UNDER BIG RED FOR AN EVENING OF GAMES, FOOD, AND GHOST STORIES IN THE TRADITION OF YOUR CHILDHOOD SLUMBER PARTY. Bring your favorite games, snacks, and stories. Feel free to wear pajamas and be comfy! This is a potluck with a twist. Think of all the treats you had as a kid from popcorn to s'mores. Beverages can have adult twist but this is a child friendly gathering so label your punch bowl.

We have a spring event coming up as well on March 24th, we will have a Duelist and Paladin tournament at that time along with an Easter egg hunt for the children! We have some exciting things planned for everyone! Fighter practices Wednesday nights seem to be flourishing with all that come out whether they are taking part in our melee's or pick ups! We thank all of those in attendants!

The A&S community continues to astound and amaze us. They have all stepped forward in so many ways to beautify and teach, they can never be thanked enough for such efforts. And we look forward to the classes we will be having now that we have UAT back. Though we look back at our first nine months as Baron and Baroness, we look forward to 2018. We are excited about our first Estrella War with the coronets!
