Words From Their Excellencies

Greetings unto the populace of the Barony of Atenveldt!

Fall is here! Temperatures are cooling down, we are having practice regularly at Encanto Park, and the intense summer heatwave is behind us (fingers crossed). We look forward to seeing everyone at fighter practices and upcoming events this fall!

Speaking of fighter practices, on the first Wednesday of every month we are hosting melee nights for everyone in the tri-baronial area. On October 11th, we will be holding our Novice Hardsuit tournament, open to all fighters who are not Knights or Masters at Arms. We also have our baronial champions events coming up the first weekend of November. If you would like to compete to be one of our champions, check out our Baronial Champions announcement here in the Palm Prints.

If you are interested in a behind-the-scenes view of the Barony, please feel free to join us at the baronial business meeting on the first Thursday of each month (where we hold an in-person meeting along with internet access via Google Meets). If you are interested in helping the barony by volunteering to be a deputy officer, the business meeting is an excellent place to see how the barony runs.

If you know someone who is deserving of a baronial award, please let us know! You can find a list of baronial awards on our baronial website (at Baronial Awards) and can send award recommendations to us at coronet@baronyofatenveldt.org

Check out our progress to see which events we will be going to in the coming months!

Nobilitatis, honorem, et gaudium vite

The Baronial Motto is “Nobilitatis, honorem, et gaudium vite”. The direct translation is “Nobility, honor, and Joy of Life” To Us, The Dream, Game, or Society is all about the magic. The main components of that magic are being noble, living and acting with honor, and last, but most definately not least, fun. Since the Romans did not have a direct transation of the word “fun”, “the joy of life” seemed to fit well.
