

Barony of Granite Mountain

November 2020

The Ermine Spot

Greetings to the glorious populace of Granite Mountain, the seventh wonder of Atenveldt!

As the weather turns colder, our minds and hearts look forward to the holiday season. We long to see our chosen family and focus on the promise of events to come in the spring. In the meantime, we have enjoyed see each other's faces and hearing each other's voices during online events like Mountain Court, officers meetings, and populace meetings.

The dutiful officer corps of Granite Mountain has been taking advantage of this time to work on the Barony's infrastructure. Our website is transitioning to WordPress; allowing us to update content more easily while giving it a look of the website more modern feeling.

In response to a suggestion made by a few populous members, we are In the planning stages of writing a "vision statement" for Granite Mountain. This statement will be distilled from the hopes, dreams, and ideals of the populace. Look for more information over the next few months.

Scriptorium

4850 N Spruce Rd.
Chino Valley

BGM Scriptorium

Our scribes have been keeping very busy despite not being able to gather together for Scriptorium. We were invited to take part in a scroll exchange with the Barony of Tyr Ysgithr in which we will be making 5 scrolls for them and they make 5 scrolls for us. This is meant to allow our artisan's a chance to try something new, learn about another groups' awards, and to share their art with others. Our scribal group has also been making scrolls for the kingdom both for backlogs and current needs. Bgm has also begun our annual scribal challenge in which we make Kingdom scroll blanks to be presented (typically at Northern War Practice). Each year we strive to beat the previous year's amount. Last year's total was an amazing 45 scrolls! We have also been receiving numerous baronial scroll blanks as well. We have received and cut both Barony and Kingdom paper so we are well equipped for continued creativity.

In Service,
HE Mistress Elsbeth von Sonnenthal
