

Barony of Granite Mountain

The Ermine Spot

January & February 2015

Warm Greetings from the Baron and Baroness of Granite Mountain,

Reflecting back on the past year of our Barony I am sure we can all agree, it has been a wild ride indeed! We have definitely gone through a great period of change and come out stronger than ever. So much has been learned, so much has been accomplished, and so much for all of us to be proud of!

A fine example of something we can all be proud of was the tremendous success of our Northern Yule! So many told us how much they loved the fantastic food, the singing and dancing, the ambiance, the gift exchange, and the fun and entertaining courts. But by far the comment we heard most often was about the warm welcome they received by the good people of Granite Mountain. Stardust memories were made that day, thanks to all of you.

Looking to the New Year we have so much fun in store! The Barony has kicked off the year with a flurry of activities. Northern War Practice, our first event of the year gave our Northern warriors a chance to sharpen their skills. This was a great event that sparked a whole lot of interest. Thank you everyone who helped make this event such a success! Our artisans were busy as well with both a Baronial Scriptorium and wonderful silk banner workshop last month. This month we will be having fighter practices, archery practices, and a Baronial Pride workshop to make tabards and Caplets. There is so much to do in preparation for Estrella War. We are off to a great start!

Are you pre-registered for Estrella War and are you planning to camp with the Seventh Wonder? We need to hear from you! Please send us your tent dimensions right away so that you can be included in our encampment plan.

We can hardly wait to see what new exciting adventures we will have together this year!

The Ermine Wrap - Dec 2014 & Jan 2015!

Northern Yule was a fantastic celebration that all who attended enjoyed! Our gentles received many awards, new Lords and Ladies, new Peer invitations, and food fit for our King! Many gracious volunteers outdid themselves with the preparation and serving of a fabulous meal!

Rapier Practices were held Jan 4th, 11th and 18th at Memory Park in Chino Valley!

Lord Janquith called out to all those that wish to receive their Rapier Fighter card! They practiced, practiced and practiced all their skills and became masters of the fancy footwork, then they received their Rapier Fighter cards at Northern War Practice!

Congratulations to Mitchi, Masuu and Daniel David for getting their authorized fighter cards and to Lord Janquith for leading all the hardwork in the Rapier field. They will do us proud at Estrella XXXI.

Northern War Practice - January 24th, 2015

The Barony of Granite Mountain, as usual, hosted an astounding event. The food was spectacular, fighting was fine tuned and awards were given!

Congratulations to:

James of Granite Mountain - for his service in the Rapier Community with an Award of Arms

HE Jacomina - for her prowess in the Arts with admittance to the Beauty of Granite Mountain.

Lord Asterkar and Lady Jacomina are recognized with Court Baronies along with a Grant of Arms.

She said YES

At Northern Yule, our very own Baroness, HE Elsbeth von Sonnenthal was invited to elevate to the Pelican Peerage!

Her vigil is March 13th and her elevation is March 14th at Mixed Weapon's War in Bumble-Bee.

We are so proud of her - be sure to come out and help her celebrate!

January Arts & Sciences were all about silk banner making, starting with Scriptorium on January 13th where designs were drawn on the silk to the banner painting weekend on January 17th and 18th! Amid much laughter and great friends new banners were created and new techniques learned for the next round! Don't miss out on your chance to make silk banners, watch for the announcement of dates on the Granite Mountain FaceBook page!

I am Rustand Drache, the current Captain of Archery and Archery Champion for the Barony of Granite Mountain.

I am hosting archery practice monthly at my home and I am happy to help anyone with their shooting, getting new equipment, repairs or just general information regarding our archery program.

I will be shooting at Estrella this year and invite anyone to come join me in the experience of shooting at a competition. It is an experience that I highly recommend all archers participate in as often as possible.

I will be hosting archery practice on Saturday, February 7th and 21st, 2015, and March 7th, 2015, at my home in Chino Valley at 10am - 12pm. We also welcome hard suit and Rapier to join us. We have plenty of room.

If you haven't heard, I have archery badges and tassels on hand, so we can truly begin to shoot for rank and points. This coming practice will be run as a Royal Round and we will keep score.

As some may have heard, War is approaching. Now is the time to check your bows, arrows, quivers and all other items needed for safe shooting. If you have questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me for help. Do not wait until arriving at War to check your gear for damage or missing pieces.

A TALE FROM ESTRELLA PAST

from our very own Lady Larken

Pray Attend Good Gentles of Barony of Granite Mountain:

Lend your ear to me as I tell you the tale of what kind of people you meet at a Society of Creative Anachronism event and the joys of a 9yr old boy!

It begins at Estrella War, Grifinn the Younger, my grandson, (Lady Larken Maria Teresa Sophia Isobela Navarro, La Scandalosa you probably know her best as Lady Larken,) attends his First War! He was excited and honestly overwhelmed by the largeness of the event, all the people he met, the fighting of heavy weapons, rapier fighting, the Archery field, Merchants Row..... OMG!! Merchants Row! The food merchants were out of this world and he couldn't wait to go each day!

Here, at Merchant's Row his dream began, for he had expressed an interest in Archery and off we went to seek out knowledge of this art form. After looking through several vender tents with Archery equipment for sale we met a gentleman who was very helpful and patient with answering all our questions. Also in the tent were 2 young men about college age who introduced themselves as Alistair and Edwin, Archers for Outlands and they had just purchased a new bow for Edwin. Hearing that Grifinn was interested in learning their art, they stuck around and helped explain the proper handling of a bow and answering many of his questions. I was so impressed with both of these young men, our Adversaries on the field of battle and their patience with a 9 year old boy. The vendor found a fiberglass bow his size was presented and Grifinn was able to try it out. Being his first war and new to the sport he made Grifinn a great deal of $20.00. Grifinn, having $30.00 of his own hard earned money looked up at me and asked "what should I do?" I replied "it's your money and you can spend it on what you want" and the sale was made!

Next he needed bows and the vendor said they were $60.00 a dozen, custom sized. Grifinn's face fell, he only had $10.00 left. That was when the proof of the dream we play in the SCA showed its face. Alistair stepped forward and stated that no new member of the Art of Archery was going to have to wait to start learning the joy of shooting. He told the vender that he and Edwin were going to buy a dozen arrows and that they wanted the vender to measure and fit half of the arrows to Grifinn and his new bow!

Grifinn was flabbergasted! We attempted to refuse the generous offer but the young men were adamant and turned deaf ears to our pleas. Grifinn was absolutely thrilled and fell over himself with thanking both Alistair and Edwin for their generous helping hand. These young men paid $60.00 for arrows that they gave away HALF to a young man who was technically their enemy at this War but also had the eagerness to learn and enjoy the sport they to loved.

But WAIT!!! There is still more to this tale! I returned to camp to start dinner while Grifinn waited for the vender to finish his new arrows. When he returned to camp he was carrying his new bow and over his shoulder was a shiny new black leather quiver with 6, just his size, arrows tucked in it. When asked about the quiver he told me the vender said no Archer of Atenveldt should have to carry a handful of arrows and gifted Grifinn with a quiver of his choice!

Bless their hearts for such a generous and good deed that was done, and proof of who and what the people of this game called the Society for Creative Anachronism are and what the dreams that we endeavor to play at and fulfill exist. We may be viewed as slightly crazy with our enthusiasm for the game we play, but DON'T EVER tell me that we are wrong with the lessons we are teaching our young about life, honor, duty, courtesy and the blessings we have from the people we will meet in this world as we grow.

So ends my tale of a young gentleman's first War experience with the Society of Creative Anachronism. One that he will remember for years to come and that has only insured that this is a game he wants to learn more about and be involved with.

Living and teaching the dream we all believe in,

Sincerely yours,

Lady Larken Maria Teresa Sophia Isobela Navarro, La Scandalosa

The Midrealm, is the third oldest kingdom in the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA). Properly known as the Middle Kingdom, it consists of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, part of Kentucky, a nip of Iowa, and a bit of Ontario.

Herein are maps depicting the regions, baronies, and shires of the Middle Kingdom.

THE MIDDLE KINGDOM

To navigate these maps, choose from the drop-down menu or simply click on an area of interest below to be taken to a map of that region.

The Middle Kingdom Great Book Web Page

This page was created almost exactly 20 years after the creation of the Middle Kingdom's treasure known as the Great Book. The Great book was one of the first, if not the very first, large, completely hand made collaborative books made in the SCA. It contains Middle Kingdom ceremonies, lists of Peerage members, maps, and some of the most splendid works of calligraphy and illumination being practiced in the SCA at the time.

Proposed Corpora Change Results - 4th Peerage

At the January 17, 2015 Board of Directors meeting in Milpitas, CA, the Board voted against revising Corpora to establish a rapier peerage. The Board also voted to delete wording that labeled rapier as an ancillary activity of the SCA and replace it with wording that unambiguously established rattan as the only permitted weapons in a Royal List. The ramifications of the two votes has generated quite a bit of discussion on social media about a number of things, but the Board did not make any decisions concerning anything at all except turning down the rapier peerage proposal and adding a statement that Royal Lists may only be fought with rattan weapons. This letter is intended by the Board to respond to the most prevalent rumors circulating in response to the Board actions of Saturday.

The Board Votes.

The Board was split on the question of the rapier peerage. Three directors voted to approve the Corpora changes and the resulting establishment of a rapier peerage because they believe that while rapier should really be recognized by the Chivalry, trying to force inclusion in the Chivalry by Board fiat would not work, and they were willing to vote yes on the proposal as a good compromise. Two directors felt rapier should be recognized as part of a peerage that recognizes all non-rattan martial arts and not a separate peerage. Two directors believed rapier should be recognized in the Chivalry. So, with a 4-3 vote against the proposed Corpora changes, which would have established a separate rapier peerage, no change will take place at this time.

The only other action the Board took concerning rapier in the SCA was removing language dating from 1979 saying that rapier was an "ancillary" activity of the SCA and, to make it clear that we are not discarding the traditions of Crown Tourney, the Board then made it very clear that only rattan combat may be used in a Royal list. This change to Corpora received the unanimous approval of the Board.

Response to Social Media Discussions.

First, the Board received commentary from less than 2% of the membership over the entire 3 years and all requests for comments on the rapier peerage issue. Many people wrote in more than once, but repeating an opinion doesn't count as a separate opinion. However, it was not the lack of commentary that influenced some Board members to vote against the proposal; it was the fact that the small amount of commentary the Board did receive trended against a separate rapier peerage. The majority of comments received in favor of recognizing rapier with a peerage said that rapier should either be included in the Order of the Chivalry or in a new peerage that included all non-rattan combat. The result of such a relatively small number of people commenting is that the opinions the Board did receive were given greater weight - if a larger number of those who supported the separate rapier peerage had commented, a different result might very well have resulted. There's no way to know that for sure, but it underscores the importance of writing in to let the Board know your opinions about proposed changes to Corpora.

Second, the Board did not open the Order of the Chivalry to inclusion of rapier fighters. There is a 1999 policy interpretation from the Society Seneschal (upheld by the Board at that time) specifically stating that the Order of the Chivalry is intended for rattan combatants only. It would take a new policy interpretation (which would need to be upheld by the current Board) or other Board action to change that fact. The Board's intention in removing the "ancillary activity" language had nothing to do with making rapier knights. The Board removed the "ancillary activity" language because it was simply no longer accurate or true. It may have been true long ago when it was added to Corpora, but times have definitely changed. Rapier has permeated the fabric of the Society, and the Board felt that the language needed to be removed. However, in order to clarify that we weren't changing the rules regarding Crown Tournaments by the deletion of the "ancillary activity" language, the Board added language restricting Crown Tournaments to rattan weapons.

The Board discussed removal of the "ancillary activity" language months ago and sent it out for comment at the same time as the additional peerage language. We understand that some people are unhappy the various changes weren't put out in separate announcements, but it never occurred to us to send out multiple announcements on the same general subject at the same time. The Board received commentary on that section, as well as the rapier peerage sections, and we can't recall any comments that disagreed with the deletion.

People will always understand what they read through the filter of their own opinions and biases, and the fact that some have made certain interpretations and raised them on social media does not make those interpretations factual. Also, a strongly expressed opinion by one or two Board members does not constitute the opinion of the entire Board of Directors of the SCA, so any assumptions made based on one or two such opinions are also not based in fact. It takes a vote of 5 out of 7 directors to make changes to Corpora, individual director opinions notwithstanding. Any official opinion of the Board of Directors will always be labeled as such, will always come through the approved communication channels and will always be posted on the corporate web site.

Fiber Frivolity XI is coming up on March 7 - the Saturday after Estrella War.

Pat Kolasinski has agreed to teach a "Care and Maintenance of Your Spinning Wheel" class, and will happily help anyone with spinning tips and tricks, so dust off your wheels and bring them up to Prescott Valley.

Dye pots are welcome and encouraged.

Anyone wishing to teach a class should contact me so I can put the word out.

This is a pot luck - please think about bringing grazing foods.

Handmade door prize donations are gratefully accepted.

See you in March! Anyone wishing to teach a class should contact me so I can put the word out.
