

Barony of Granite Mountain

The Ermine Spot

Greetings good gentles all,

We can all agree that it has been a flurry of activity in these past few weeks in Granite Mountain. We can all sit back, catch our breath, and be proud of all the accomplishments and stardust we have made.

Champions in the Pines was a wonderful event. We would like to thank the event stewards Lord Rustand & Lady Beth as well as the feast steward Lady Ros for all of your hard work. We would also like to thank the former Champions, marshals, and officers for planning such wonderful competitions, shoots, and tournaments. Thank you to the cooks and servers who gave us such a lovely feast, it was delightful. Thank you also once again to M'lady Julie for painting all the clever targets for Archery and Thrown Weapons. Also a special thank you goes out to the populace of Granite Mountain and friends from all over Atenveldt who joined us for a weekend of fun and friendship. Last but not least, Congratulations to the new Champions of Granite Mountain!

The populace meeting & court night was great fun. Thank you to everyone who generously donated to the taco bar, the food was amazing but that's how we roll here in Granite Mountain right? This month we will once again be having a "spooktacular" populace meeting & court night. There will be a costume contest with 5 categories: creepiest, most original, puniest, silliest, and best duo/group. Win a prize for bringing the best tasty treat! Lots of fun and games for all, you won't want to miss out.

At the beginning of this month our Barony hosted the Kingdom Arts & Sciences competition. There were so many wonderfully talented artisans, we were in awe. We want to congratulate Lady Cynthia and her team of helpers for a job well done. We would also like to commend Lady Rose for winning two different categories in Open as well as Lady Cynthia and Lady Camere for winning their category in novice. We would also like to congratulate Lord Kitajima Ichirou Machyasu Kitajima Ichirou Machyasu for reaching the semifinals in the Kingdom's 3rd Cut and Thrust Champions tournament, huzzah! We saw our talented Chronicler Lady Allesia given a Kingdom award for service, the Beacon of the Desert. We were very excited to be witness to Count Brian Winterbourne being offered the Order of the Laurel from their Majesties. It was a great weekend for the Barony and the Kingdom.

Inside this issue of the "Ermine Spot" there is a missive posted about our new "Ermine Tale Challenge". We would like to encourage members of the populace to participate. We announced the official beginning of this challenge in court at this past Champions in the Pines. The first premier members will be recognized at Champions 2017. If any of you have any further questions about this Challenge, please let us know. We look forward to receiving your letters soon! Kitajima Ichirou Machyasu Kitajima Ichirou Machyasu

An Ermine Spot o' Fun

Letter from the Editors

Greetings Populace!

A lot of big events have happened over the past few months. If you happened to have missed the taco bar populace meeting you missed a lot of things that are going on. Champions in the Pines and Kingdom A&S brought us great champions, and great awards! It may be the end of our year but this is when we get ready for winter and then WAR!!!!!! Don't forget our Spooktacular populace, place to be announced soon, and wear a costume!

The Ermine Wrap - September 2016!

OF THE THINGS YOU MISSED

Greetings to you one and all in the glorious Barony of Granite Mountain, ROCKS!

Kingdom A&S was a great success. The total numbers are not all in but it was very well attended! 97 adults and 4 children.

Congratulations to Wade Greenwall who was the Kingdom A&S Champion!

Congratulations to Allesia for receiving the Beacon of the Desert award, she is definitely a beacon for me many times. Always bright and bubbly and to me a wealth of information.

Huzzah to all of you who received awards! Thank you Lady Cynthia and Camere for the hard work and dedication to making our event a wonderful time for all to enjoy!
