

Barony of Granite Mountain

The Ermine Spot

January 2016

Greetings Unto the Noble Populace of Granite Mountain,

Happy New Year Granite Mountain!

As we reflect back on our past year we have so much to be proud of. We have grown with welcome additions to our Baronial family. We have held 5 very successful events, multitudes of practices, populace meetings, arts nights and workshops. The rapier, archery, and artisan communities have flourished. Our coffers have grown and our officer core has nearly been filled. Many of our Baronial awards have passed and our new website has been launched. Our populace has traveled, as well as entered competitions bringing renown to our Barony.

Where do we go from here? It is our hope that in this coming year we continue down this same path of success. In addition we hope to add to the splendor of the Barony in the form of new regalia. We hope that the Barony can serve a larger role in Estrella War and that we challenge ourselves taking on Kingdom events. At long last thrown weapons will finally become a reality here in the Barony lending us a new Baronial Champion of this skill in September. These are just a few of the items on our wish list for the Barony in 2016. We would like to encourage everyone to please contact us if you have any additional things you would like to see in the coming year.

The Barony will kick off the New Year with Northern War Practice. All of our Northern warriors will have a chance to gather together to sharpen their skills in Rapier and Armored Combat. This year's Northern War Practice will also be a special day of celebration and will mark the 5th anniversary of the Barony of Granite Mountain. What is the traditional gift for a 5th year anniversary you may ask? It appears the answer is wood, should there be something created in that medium for this important milestone of our Barony? If you have any ideas/thoughts on this matter, please let us know. There will also be an Arts Pavilion once again. Please stop by and join other artisans for an afternoon of creativity and a class in bookbinding (taught by, Lord Sebastian). Also in keeping with our tradition here in Granite Mountain we ask that our populace please give donations of soups, stews, and breads to keep everyone warm and fed. All of this will be in preparation for Estrella War. Also don't forget the following day there will be an archery practice and an A&S documentation class (taught by, Master Ritchyrd). It will be a very busy weekend in the Barony!

Are you pre-registered for Estrella War and are you planning to camp with the Seventh Wonder? We need to hear from you! We shall once again be putting together a map for the Baronial encampment. Please send us your tent dimensions by email: bgmcoronet@gmail.com, so that you can be included on the map.

We are looking forward to all the exciting new adventures we will have together this year!

Letter from the Editor

Greetings Populace and Happy New Year! In honor of the time old tradition of making New Year's Resolutions I give you this article written by our own Excellency Natal'ia on conflict resolution and I ask our Barony to rise to these occasions and lead the way for the rest of Atenveldt.

20 Seconds of Bravery

What has 5,000 eyes, 10,000 limbs, and 2,500 different opinions? Atenveldt. When you participate in a hobby with thousands of your friends and chosen family conflicts will happen – it's inevitable; but it's how we choose to handle them that set the tone for our Kingdom and our local groups.

The period way of conflict resolution is to storm each other's castles with catapults, battering rams, and lobbing the Holy Hand Grenade of Antioch all while yelling "A pox upon your house!" and "Your mother was a hamster and your father smelt of elderberries!". Luckily we recreate the Middle Ages as they should have been, not as they were.

Recently I taught a conflict resolution class to the Officers of our Kingdom at Aten U, focusing on several different ways that we can peacefully resolve conflicts and come to solutions that benefit as many people as possible. What I have learned in my 15 years in Human Resources and 20+ years in the SCA is that 95% of conflicts are caused by simple miscommunication. The faster it gets cleared up the faster the conflict is resolved – and the most effective way to do that is to talk directly with the person/people involved.

Unfortunately, that's also one of the hardest things for us as humans to do- we're not a species that likes confrontation. Instead we have a tendency to do 1 of 2 things- either try and ignore the fact there is an issue or we talk to everyone else around us about it that's not actually involved. Sadly, through time-tested experiments neither one actually works to solve the problem; they only tend to make the problem even MORE of a problem, and almost always create new problems in its wake. But as Benjamin Mee said in We Bought A Zoo "You know, sometimes all you need is twenty seconds of insane courage. Just literally twenty seconds of just embarrassing bravery. And I promise you, something great will come of it." Benjamin may have been talking about wooing a girl, but the sentiment is the same- 20 seconds of bravery to approach someone and say "I think there's been a miscommunication and I'd like to clear it up" can lead to something great- a resolution.

I give you all my promise to be brave if needed this upcoming year!

OH THE THINGS YOU MISSED

Northern Yule was wonderful and so many awards were handed out, including many from our barony. Congratulations to all who worked hard to achieve these awards. The food was plentiful and delicious and more than enough.

Our beautiful Barony celebrated it's Christmas with a wonderful spread hosted by Lady Larken. As usual it was wonderful. After our meeting we had a gift exchange. The highlight was when the beautiful decorations made by Lord Rustand were quickly snapped up as they had dragons upon them. It was all in great fun and any decorations will be proudly displayed. From our Barony to you we hope you had a Happy Holiday and wish you a prosperous New Year.

With the weather not being cooperative there were no practices for archery.

WELCOME CAITERINA CU MAC CRAITH

NEW TO THE SCA

NEW TO THE BARONY OF GRANITE MOUNTAIN

ONE OF US!

Meet Caiterina Cu Mac Craith. AKA, Helen Keeter. She joined the SCA in February of 2015, yes just before Estrella War. Although she wasn't able to attend the whole event she did get to enjoy the last few nights and days. Enjoying the drumming, dancing, sitting around the campfire and meeting a lot of nice new people. She has been practicing archery and thrown weapons and hopes to compete at Estrella War in February of 2016. She will also be busy as a Queen's guard and Lady in waiting for our wonderful Baroness. In her down time away from events she is our Barony's Book Herald. A lot of research for names, devices, households, badges for both the barony and individuals. She also enjoys weaving on her inkle loom which she is currently working on some trim for a tabard that she is making for her husband.

At Northern Yule Caiterina became a Root of Granite Mountain.

Caitierina also has her husband Larry, and their 17 year old son Jake that participate in the SCA with her.

I've known the Keeter's for several years as their son and mine are best friends. I'm very proud of Helen and very proud to call her my friend. I'm most proud of how much she has achieved in such a short time in our Barony and for our Barony. I'm excited to see how far she can go!

 sold on Amazon

The content of this site is here as a resource both for the populace of Artemisia, and for those who would like to know more about Artemisia's people, arts, laws, and customs. Recognized as a Principality in May of 1988, Artemisia was elevated to Kingdom status in July of 1997. As Lord Vladimir has said, "we [the populace] selectively recreate medieval culture, choosing elements of the culture that interest and attract us." The populace of the Kingdom devotes their free time in all manner of sport (heavy fighting, rapier fighting, equestrian activities), crafts (leatherwork, spinning, calligraphy), and educational activities (classes or research). Royalty holds their courts, a part of which is bestowing awards on deserving citizens. The populace holds tournaments, attend feasts, and enjoy the Middles Ages, as "they should have been."

Leap Day Origins

The Roman calendar was reformed by Julius Caesar in 45 BCE. The Julian calendar was no longer dependent on the observation of the new moon but simply followed an algorithm of introducing a leap day every four years. This created a dissociation of the calendar month from the lunation. The Gregorian calendar was introduced as a refinement of the Julian calendar in 1582 and is today in worldwide use as the de facto calendar for secular purposes.

Feb 2, 1461

Edward Earl of March, now the heir to the English throne, showed off his military skills at the Battle of Mortimer's Cross in Herefordshire. The Lancastrians with Welsh support had caught Edward as he travelled to London. On the morning of the battle three bright lights were seen in the sky. Edward used this strange sight as a good omen. The Lancastrians were defeated and Owen Tudor was captured and beheaded. Jasper Tudor escaped

Feb 12, 1429

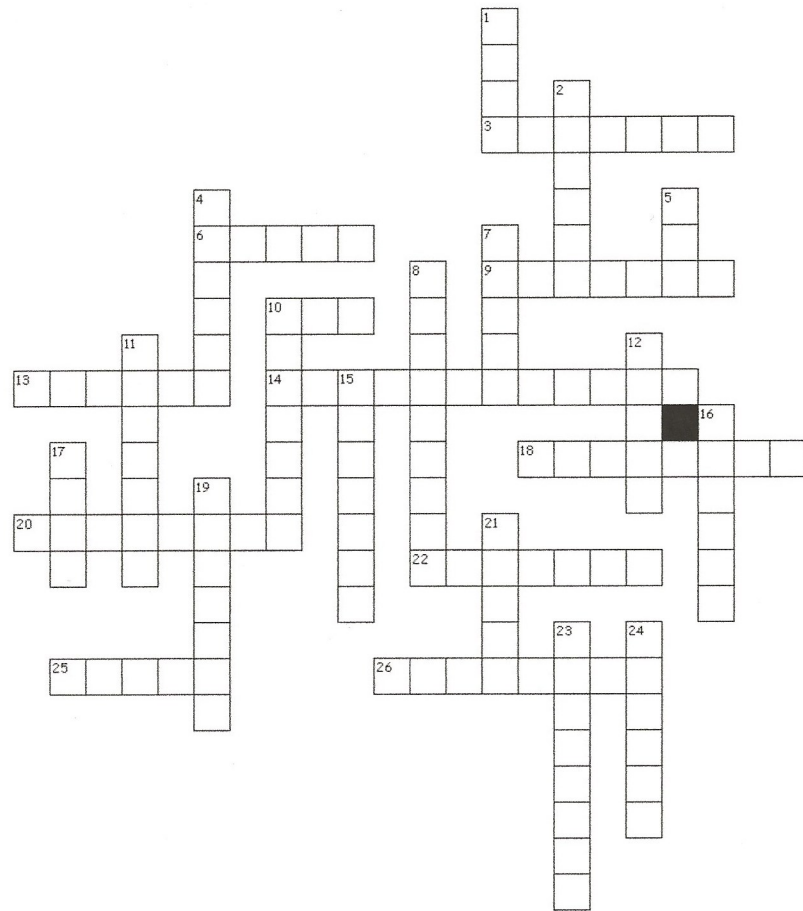

To supply the English who were besieging Orléans the Duke of Bedford arranged for a convoy of food be sent. The convoy was attacked by the French but the English managed to fight them off. After the battle the battlefield was covered with the food which was mostly salted fish.
