Baronial Missive

Garb for 50 Year made by Lady Clarice la courturiere d'Avignon

As we enter into July We look back at the past few events with fond memory.

Thank you to all those to traveled with us to the SCA 50 year celebration, it was amazing to see all the history. The SunDragon flag flew proudly along with the Atenveldt Kingdom banners. Atenveldt was well represented in the activities and events and we will have stories to keep us going until the next mile stone celebration.

By the time this missive reaches you we will be preparing for Highlands, always a good time to be had in the Barony of Ered Sul.

We have our Court Night and A&S Defender Tourney on July 17th. Please see the Chronus or Book of Faces for more details.

The Barony of Granite Mountain will again be hosting their Collegium along with our A&S Showcase and Championship. Please travel with Us on July 30 to the Great Barony of Granite Mountain to take part in the competitions or take or teach a class.

The Atenveldt Sun continues to warm us as We head into the month of August, with Fabric War, Mace and Great Sword/BMMT Investiture, and Fall Crown. Wherever your travels take you be safe and know that you are loved and you are family.

Vivat the Dream!

Family Goes a-Roman... by Lady Dearbhail ingen Muirdoch mic Alasdair

To Their Excellencies I do send my warmest regards.

Greetings to my Sun Dragon Family

I wanted to share a family experience I have recently had. My Dear family has been very supportive of my exploration within the SCA and especially my joy of learning History. Upon coming back, I had to take my time getting involved. It was close to Coronation weekend, when we would be saying Good bye to King Casca and Queen Melissa and we welcomed King Craven and Queen Elizabeta.

For Coronation I asked for the Honor and Privilege to be Lady in Waiting to Her Excellency Brigit of Mons Tonitrus. I decided to best deal with the Arizona summer and heat, it was time to explore Rome. By looking at pictures of statues, doing some research on the oracle (internet), and then of course comes the raiding of the stash. I was able to recreate what is now affectionately known as my "RED roman". I was able to design the stolla (dress) and palla (scarf) using a few statue examples (below, from Pintrest).

These images led down my own path to create my own dresses.

From this picture, that very evening I went to my Aunt's home and "showed off".

That's really when the rest of the family went down our lovely rabbit hole... They started researching different areas of Rome. Music, clothing, activities. We had many a great conversation. Then came the question, "When is the next event and can we come?" So we planned and looked and the whole family is going to be going to Highland Wars. And what do you need when you go to war..... CLOTHES!!

We started to explore different areas where Rome had gone and conquered. We spoke about fabric and materials. What would have been available and how we can use more modern things to accomplish the same look of antiquity. If only money was no object!! We settled on linen for the fabric as it was best for the budget and would allow room for the body to "breathe" in this Heated Atenveldt Sun. We then set about finding colors that suited each of the Ladies. We learned that Roman women loved color as much as their modern counterparts do. The richer and deeper the color the higher in social caste you were. It also depends on areas you come from.

So here were colors we ended up choosing based on each woman:

Then it was time to get down to SEW-FEST!! We set aside 1 weekend to get as much taught as possible, being that several of the family live in another area of Atenveldt, several hours away.

As the pictures show, we accomplished a great many things. From Hair, to jewelry, to dresses and stollas and using them in a variety of ways and styles.

Jewelry design...

Ironing Station....

Teaching skills...

Design elements...

Mi'Lady Catherine's dress

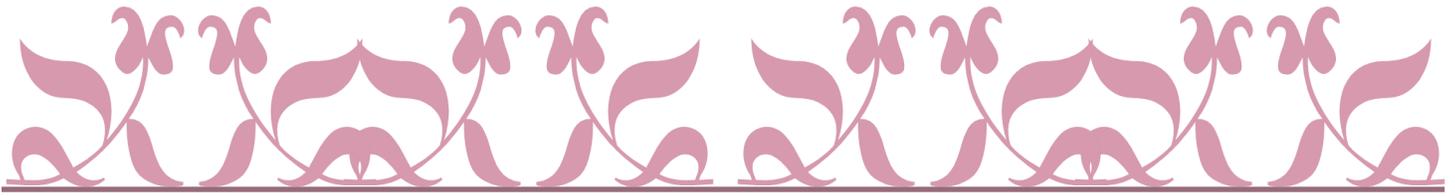

Mi'Lady Virginia's dress

It's always a joy to get to include family. We have many more ideas we are working on, and many more surprises to come. So, should you happen to be at Highland War's, we shall all be happy to make your acquaintance and share our new learning experiences. We love Rome and are happy to keep exploring! HUZZAH!!
