BARONIAL MISSIVE

Greetings unto the glorious Barony,

Good populace, October is the month! This is the month when Our champions are decided. We are still taking declarations of intent to compete in all of the competitions whether it be arts and sciences, combat styles, bardic, chatelaine, or overall champion. We have had several individuals step up and make their intentions known to us. We would like to see more. If you have a desire to be one of Our champions, please declare yourself to us either on the Facebook page, by email, or in person with both of Us present. For style champions, chatelaine, and overall champion, We will be taking declaration of intent right up to the night before Our champions event.

We are so looking forward to Our champions event for so many reasons. We will be the venue for the elevation of Thegn Lutold into the noble order of the pelican. We will be recognizing the members of Our populous who have given so much to so many over the years, and will be presenting Our new commander's awards to the members of the barony who hold that accolade, and to the ones who may join their ranks.

Because the commander level of each of our awards represents so many years of dedication to each of the disciplines, and to the fulfillment of the dream, We felt it necessary to create some sort of symbol befitting that dedication. As fate would have it, a couple members of the barony, Master Raven and Mistress Turrel, were of the same mind and presented us with an idea. An idea that We fell in love with. Over the months since We were invested, Master Raven has spent countless hours researching designs and developing and editing the charters for the awards. After much paperwork, real-world legal complications, and a relatively short time constraint, We have these new awards ready to be presented for the first time at Our baronial champions event. The list of people We wish to thank is long, but We will wait until the event to make those thank-you's as We would prefer to do it in court so that the rest of the populace may also acknowledge the efforts of all involved. In the next few months, We will be posting missives that describe the commanders awards, and the history of their design. These awards represent members of this barony that are beloved to many.

We are so fortunate to be able to share our event with Our brethren in the Barony of Atenveldt, as they also will be determining who their champions are. We have been working closely with Baron Nudd and Baroness Emelyn in the planning of this event as a combined champions occasion.

We can't wait to see all of you there and to be able to name Our new champions.
